NARRATIVE

On November 7, 2013, at 1146 hours, I was dispatched to the Tate Center in reference to an activated fire alarm. Upon my arrival there were no signs of smoke or fire, and there was no audible alarm. I met with Caitlyn Kolesar, who stated she had silenced the alarm prior to my arrival because there was no water flow problem on the 6th floor, as the fire panel had indicated. Security Central then called UGAPD and advised they were receiving further fire alarms, which they described as a water flow alarm on the first floor of the parking deck.

I proceeded there, and at 1155 hours I observed a ruptured sprinkler pipe at the south entrance on the first floor of the Tate Deck. The Clarke County Fire Department arrived at the same time. Under the pipe was a UGA vehicle [redacted] which was visibly wedged underneath the pipe by a step ladder. I made contact with the driver of the vehicle, James Stinchcomb, who stated that he was driving the truck into the entrance of the deck. He stated that the ladder`s bottom end was resting in the bed of the truck against the tailgate, and the top end was strapped to a metal crossbar that ran between the toolbox in the bed of the truck and the cabin of the truck. He further stated that the top of the ladder struck a clearance bar of the parking deck that is 7 feet off of the ground, which exists to warn vehicles of the clearance height of the deck. He stated that the ladder caught on the bar, and as the vehicle continued forward, it caused the top of the ladder to continue upwards, where it struck the pipe. Stinchcomb stated he didn`t realize anything had happened until he saw the water flow from the ruptured pipe. When he exited the truck, he observed the ladder wedged between the ceiling of the deck and the truck bed; the pipe was wedged between the ladder and deck ceiling.

I was advised by an unidentified third party that Greg Albanese (Associate Director of Tate Facilities) turned off the water flow to the sprinklers. Once the pipes had emptied, CCFD released the truck from the wedged ladder, and went back into service.

Notes/Narratives

There were no injuries reported on-scene. There was no damage to the vehicle. The ladder was severely bent near the top, rendering it unusable. The only other resulting damage was to a piece of sprinkler pipe approximately 5 feet in length that was bent. The damaged section held the sprinkler head and was cracked at the nearest "T" junction which ran to other sprinkler heads.

Photographs were taken at the scene. Stinchcomb was given the case reference number. My FlexCam, in addition to the FlexCam's of SPO Hamsley and SPO Harris, were active during this incident. There is brief MVR footage of this incident. Stinchcomb drove the vehicle away from the scene.

Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On November 7, 2013 I responded to a burglary call at [redacted] When I arrived on scene I spoke with [redacted] He stated the apartment was entered and items were taken.

He stated he left the apartment at approximately 0900 this morning. He returned at approximately 1720 and noticed the front door was unlocked. He went inside and checked around. He noticed the television was taken out of his bedroom along with an Xbox 360 with a controller and 5 games. He went back outside and called police.
I checked the apartment and noticed entry was made through the side window beside the front door. The window looked as though it may have been pried open and the lock was broken. All of the bedrooms on the top floor were entered, drawers were opened and items removed. The bedroom door to Devante's room was lock and damage when forced entry was made. Forensics was contacted in reference to processing the scene. They responded and processed the scene.

I also spoke with [redacted] She rents the apartment. She stated she was in an argument with [redacted] a relative who she allowed to move in back in September to help her out. Last date, [redacted] was in an argument with [redacted] in reference to [redacted] allowing her boyfriend, [redacted] in the apartment after [redacted] requested [redacted] not allow him to spend the night. [redacted] stated she did not want [redacted] in the apartment due to his previous history of burglary. [redacted] was sneaking him into the apartment. [redacted] left last date with her belonging. [redacted] believes [redacted] may have committed the burglary due to the issues that [redacted] has had with [redacted] and it was also a coincidence the burglary happened the day after she left. She does not know this without a doubt but feels he may have done it. [redacted] also stated [redacted] was suppose to be meeting a rep for DFCAS at this apartment. When [redacted] called and asked her if she was coming, [redacted] to her she was not. [redacted] thought this was also weird for her not to show up with the idea that DFACS may take her children from her and she did not want to show for the meeting.

There was also another female at the residence when I arrived. She left before I could get her information. She is the girlfriend of [redacted] She stated earlier this date at approximately 1330 she received a text from [redacted] asking if she was at home. She thought this was a little weird due to [redacted] not really having a reason to ask her that question.

[redacted] was given a copy of the case number for future reference.

Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

7 November 2013 I responded to [redacted] in reference to a domestic disturbance between [redacted]

[redacted] mother called police. When I arrived on scene [redacted] was standing outside with family members, and [redacted] was waiting near the door of her apartment. I started to speak with [redacted] about what happened and could not communicate with him because his mother continuously tried to answer questions for him. I confirmed that [redacted] was an adult and his mother was not present during the incident and had no additional information. I eventually had to speak with [redacted] separately. He said that he was driving [redacted] home. She started looking through his phone and found things involving other females that upset her. She then threw the phone and it struck the driver's side window. She was sitting in the front passenger seat. There was no damage to the car window. The screen of the phone was cracked. [redacted] said they were boyfriend and girlfriend but had no children together and never lived together.

I went inside apartment [redacted] to speak with [redacted] She told me that she just discovered [redacted] was cheating on her and they had ended their relationship. She denied throwing his phone in the car. According to her [redacted] drove her home and she then promptly packed up what property he had at her house, put it in a red bag, and threw it to him. She said the phone was in the bag and may have been damaged by accident. She said she did not want or try to intentionally damage anything. She further said that throughout their relationship she has had frequent problems with [redacted] mother.

Both parties said that they were done with one another and, to the best of their knowledge, [redacted] had retrieved any belongings he had at this location and had no reason to return. I again spoke with [redacted] and explained his options, including the process for pressing charges and pursing financial compensation as a civil matter. He did not have much else to say and told me he did not like the police. He repeatedly mumbled something about not going to court for anything. He said he just wanted to get his stuff and leave. I asked him if he wanted a report, and eventually he said that he did, although he was not interested in prosecution at the time.

I gave both parties a case number and [redacted] left the area.

NARRATIVE

On 11/7/2013 I responded to the area of 954 N. Chase St. where there were at least three subjects were spray painting the building. The caller could only see flashlights and heard the spray paint cans.

The first officer on scene was Sgt. Tim Gailey with the Clarke County Sheriff's Office. Along with the assistance of other ACCPD officers four subjects were located and questioned.

The four subjects that were on scene are:

[redacted]

I was told that both [redacted] were in the vicinity of the spray paint location when officers arrived on scene.

I spoke with [redacted] and they stated that they only watched and did not participate in the spray painting. They did say that they did help pass cans over to [redacted]

[redacted] stated to me that they saw the old graffiti in the area and thought that it looked bad. This gave him the idea to paint over it to make it look better. [redacted] admitted to spray painting on the walls.

Photos were taken of all subjects on scene and their hands. All subjects, except for [redacted] had spray paint on their hands. Photos were taken of the scene as well. Note that due to daylight savings

Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 11-06-2013 at 1202 hours I was dispatched to the University of Georgia Police Department lobby in reference to theft by taking report. Upon my arrival I met with the victim [redacted] stated that on 10-24-2013 at 1004 hours her At&t Iphone (valued at $200) was delivered to Brumby Hall's front desk. [redacted] stated that on this date she went to retrieve the Iphone from the Brumby Hall front desk, and they advised her that they did not have the Iphone in the mail room. [redacted] stated she knew when the phone was supposed to be delivered and went to retrieve it sometime around then. Since she could not remember the specific time, it was estimated to be within an hour of delivery. There was no GCIC entry made at the time of this report due to the lack of identifiers.

[redacted] was given a case reference card.

Total loss for this incident is $200.

My flex camera was not working properly for this incident.

IMEI number: 013882000699104. At [redacted] and At&t's request this number has been added to this report.
