Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 04/17/2013 at 1526 hours I was dispatched to [REDACTED] to meet with [REDACTED] in reference to a entering auto.

When I arrived on scene I met with [REDACTED] who explained to me that a back pack had been taken out of his car which contained three notebooks, a calculator, his laptop and its accessories.

[REDACTED] explained that the last time he saw the back pack was on 03/22/2013 at 1430 hours when his wife dropped him off at work at [REDACTED]. I asked [REDACTED] why he waited so long to report the theft and he explained that he and his wife were in the middle of moving when he discovered it missing on 03/25/2013 at 1000 hours, and wanted to make sure that it hadn't accidentally been misplaced during the move. [REDACTED] stated that there was no damage to his car and that his keyless entry has not been working properly and possibly the car was not locked when he went into work on 03/22/2013. [REDACTED] explained that he did check the surveillance system at work and was unable to see his car in the parking lot during the dates 03/22/2013-03/25/2013. I asked [REDACTED] if the theft could have occurred at his new residence at [REDACTED] but he explained that he spent most of his time at work during the days listed.

[REDACTED] was unable to give me a serial number for the computer at the time I took the report. [REDACTED] stated that he should have the serial number at home and would call back to the police department when he was able to find it at home.
