Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On October 14, 2013 I responded to a theft call at 416 College Cir. When I arrived on scene I spoke with [REDACTED]. He stated he checked the storage room under the carport and noticed numerous tools and climbing equipment missing. The last time he can remembering seeing any of the items is approximately 6-8 weeks ago. He stated the door has been locked the whole time and there was no damage or forced entry. The door was also locked when he opened it today.

I checked and could not locate any area of forced entry. The surfaces that may have been touched were textured and dusty. Lance emailed me alist of the missing items. The items taken are listed below:

On the listed date and time I was dispatched to [REDACTED] reference to a stolen cell phone.

I arrived at this location where I met with [REDACTED]. She said that on Saturday night between 2300 and 0200 she lost her cell phone downtown in she believes silver dollar. She said she initially thought the employees at the bar might have it so she did not report it missing. She said when she used the track my phone app she located her phone in Dahlonga GA on the campus of UNG near wimpy hall road. She said her phone has since been turned off. She did not know who may have taken her phone or when exactly it happened she only believes it was inside this bar.

She said she contacted with UNG Police department who informed her they could not do anything about it and would need a Police report here in Athens.

The phone was described as a White in color I phone 4S with serial Number C8PJQB2DT9V. The phone number for the phone was [REDACTED]. The password lock on the phone is [REDACTED]. The phone will be entered into GCIC with this report.
