Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 03/17/14 at approximately 1456 hours, the University of Georgia Police Department was notified by the University Health Center that a sexual assault/battery involving a UGA student had occurred on 03/15/14 in New York, New York. The notification was received via fax. The victim, who wished to remain anonymous, stated that an unknown individual had committed the offense of sexual assault/battery against her while she was in New York, New York. The victim did not wish to report the crime to the police department. This report was generated to document this incident even though it did not occur within the University of Georgia Police Department's jurisdiction and will not be counted for any statistical purpose.

Due to the fact that the unknown victim has not reported the crime to the police, this case is inactive.
