Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On Friday 11JAN at around 0235 I was traveling east bound on Baxter St approaching Finley St, there was a group of subjects walking across the street against the traffic light. The last individual was staggering as he walked apparently under the influence. The subject was looking up the hill in my direction while walking. I started slowing down as he was still partially in the roadway. When I got within about fifty feet, the subject flipped me off and staggered onto the sidewalk. I could see that the subject appeared to be very young and was definitely exhibiting signs of intoxication.

I got out and made contact with him. The subject (identified as Conner McKeeth) stopped and was standing very close to me. I immediately noticed his eyes were glassy and bloodshot, he swayed back and forth while he stood and as we began to talk I could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. I asked for his driver's license at which point he retrieved his wallet and began fumbling through it. He produced a QT (gas station) card. I restated that I needed to see his license.

McKeeth next produced a UGA ID to which I told him again that I needed to see his license and not a fake one. He finally presented a GA driver's license indicating that he was in fact under 21. McKeeth stated that he was indeed 19 and did not deny that he had been drinking when I questioned him. I placed him under arrest, handcuffed and double locked behind his back.

I searched McKeeth and turned him over to OFC Waindle for transport to the jail.
