Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 04JUL2013 at approximately 2200hrs I was dispatched to a carjacking in progress. Central advised via my mobile data terminal that the female caller was the owner of a blue Honda Fit and that an unknown male had gotten into her vehicle and was not letting her out of the car. Dispatch advised that they could hear a struggle and screaming in the background.

When I arrived I observed a white male wearing a dark colored polo shirt and khaki shorts laying in the grass on the side of the road beside a blue Honda Fit bearing Georgia Tag [redacted] hat was stopped in the roadway in the right most lane. I also observed a white female standing on the side of the road approximately 150 ft. behind the vehicle.

Other officers made contact with and detained the white male while I made contact with the female.

Immediately upon approaching the female I observed that she was clearly distraught. She was hyperventilating, crying and visibly shaking. I observed that her eyes were wide and it took her a few moments to calm down enough to speak to me. When she was able to speak, she identified herself as [redacted] told me that only a few minutes prior to our arrival, she was turning left onto Epps Bridge Parkway from Abby West in her blue Honda Fit when she saw a white male waving his arms and flagging her down. She told me that she pulled to the right side of the road, where her vehicle was currently stopped, and that he approached the window. [redacted] said that the male told her that he needed help and "needed to borrow her cell phone." She told me that she let him use her phone by handing it to him through the window. She then told me that he was "saying strange things on the phone like: "tell me your real name."" [redacted] said that after he hung up the phone he made a move to get into the car. She told me that she tried to lock the doors but wasn't fast enough.

Notes/Narratives

She told me that he got into her car and told her to "drive." [redacted] told me that she told him "no" and that he said "I dare you to call the police." She told me that at this point she called 911. [redacted] old me that while she was on the phone with 911 dispatchers, he began to hit her in the arm, shoulder and face. She then told me that the dispatcher told her to get out of the car. She said that police arrived shortly thereafter. [redacted] told me that while she was being attacked, the male was yelling at her and calling her "Satan" and "Lucifer." [redacted] old me that he appeared to be either: "on drugs or very drunk, something was wrong." She also told me that she had never seen the man before this interaction and did not know who he was.

[redacted] completed a victim witness statement.

Sgt. Dickerson was with the male while I was speaking to [redacted] Sgt. Dickerson told me that the male was refusing to tell him his name and did not have ID on his person. Sgt. Dickerson also gave me a plastic zip-loc bag containing three mushrooms that was found in the left side cargo pocket of the male subject. Based on the suspect`s reported behavior, I suspected that the mushrooms were hallucinogenic.

After completing her written statement, [redacted] told me that she had been receiving calls from phone number 229 221 7299. [redacted] old me that this phone number was the one that the male had called. While she was telling me this the phone rang again. I answered it and a male voice asked to speak to Hunter. I asked for the caller to spell the name and he spelled out Hunter Dalton. I identified myself as a Police Officer and asked who I was speaking to. The caller would not say but told me that Hunter was his son. I asked for Hunter`s date of birth and description and the caller told me that Hunter`s date of birth was [redacted]90 and that he was approximately 6 foot tall, 170 lbs white male with dirty blonde hair. This matched the description of the suspect we had in custody. I asked how the caller knew that Hunter could be reached at this phone number and he told me that Hunter had called a few minutes prior from this number and that he recognized Hunter`s voice. The caller asked me what was going on and I informed him that his son had been placed under arrest for assaulting someone. The caller became uncooperative after this. I asked the caller what Hunter said when he called. The caller was evasive with his answer. I asked for the name of the caller and he hung up the phone.

A search in ILEADS revealed a picture of Hunter Dalton and confirmed that he was in fact the suspect that we currently had in custody.

CID was contacted and Detectives Patterson and Schultz responded to the scene. Det. Schultz processed the vehicle for evidence and Det. Patterson interviewe[redacted]

Notes/Narratives

Mr. Dalton was charged with multiple crimes. When Mr. Dalton entered [redacted] vehicle against her will and ordered her to "drive" he took possession of her vehicle. Mr. Dalton was charged with Robbery (OCGA 16-8-40) for taking possession of [redacted] vehicle through intimidation and by placing her in fear of immediate serious bodily injury. Mr. Dalton was charged with Aggravated Assault (OCGA 16-5-21) for assaulting [redacted] with the intent to rob her of her vehicle. Mr. Dalton was charged with Entering Auto (OCGA 16-8-18) for entering [redacted] automobile with the intent to commit a felony (robbery). Mr. Dalton was charged with False Imprisonment (OCGA 16-5-41) for taking possession of [redacted] automobile with her still in it, thus prohibiting her movement and detaining her against her will. Mr. Dalton was charged with Simple Battery (OCGA 16-5-23) for intentionally causing physical harm to [redacted] by striking her in the face, arm and shoulder. Mr. Dalton was charged with a Violation of the Georgia Controlled Substances Act (OCGA 16-13-30) for possessing a Schedule 1 controlled substance (Hallucinogenic Mushrooms).

Mr. Dalton was transported to the Clarke County Jail.

[redacted] was given a case number.

The mushrooms were placed into evidence with a request that they be identified by the GBI crime lab.

An Audio recording of my interview with [redacted] will be attached to this report in ILEADS.

Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 07/07/13 I responded to [redacted] in reference to a burglary. The residence was cleared before my arrival. The front door appeared to have been kicked in. The deadbolt was broken and the framing of the door was cracked. I did not see any signs of pry marks on the door or door frame. I walked inside and could see that three of the four bedroom doors inside the apartment had been kicked in. The locks were broken and some of the framing from the door was laying on the bedroom floors. The back sliding door was open, but was not pryed open. It appearred that may have been been the exit route.

I spoke with the resident/victim, [redacted] who said that she was the only roommate living at the apartment for the summer and the she left to go to work at approximately 4:40 p.m. Her boyfriend, [redacted] told me he was at the apartment until approximately 7:40 p.m. Both [redacted] said they arrived back at the apartment at approximately 10:40 p.m. to find the door kicked in. [redacted] said that she was missing a black Toshiba Satelite laptop valued at $850, a silver Acer View 5 laptop valued at $450 and a jewelry box with assorted jewelry in it. She was unable to describe any of the jewelry to me other than a few rings and earrings. [redacted] said he was missing two computer monitors. He described both as black 27 inch Asus monitors. He said one was an older model but was unable to give me the model or year. He said they were valued at $900. The two labtops and two monitors were taken from the living room and the jewelry box was taken from her room, which is room B.

[redacted] spoke with her roommate, [redacted] who said that she was missing her black 26 inch Audiobox HG television. [redacted] said it appeared that nothing else was taken from [redacted] room. [redacted] lives in room A.

Both room C and D were vacant and nothing was taken from those rooms. Those bedroom doors had been kicked in.

Photos were taken of the apartment. I processed the scene for fingerprints and shoe prints but was unable to find any usable prints.

[redacted] was given a case number and asked to contact me if she o[redacted] were able to find serial numbers to the items that were taken.

NARRATIVE

Vehicle unlocked item out of sight

On 07-07-13 at approx. 1202 hours, [redacted] She told me that last night between 0230 hours and 1100 hours this morning someone entered her 2009 Kia Sportage and took her burgundy wallet from under her front passenger seat, where she normally keeps it. She said that she thought that she had locked the doors but there was no forced entry so they must have been unlocked. She said when she got into her Kia to go home her doors were shut but she found an empty pack of Camel menthol cigarettes. When she arrived home her friend [redacted] nd looked for her wallet but never found it so they called 911. Wang also reported that his Leatherman folding pliers were missing from [redacted] glove box. He told me tha [redacted] vallet was a gift from his mother and it had a molded plastic decoration that looked like a key hole attached to it. He said that his Leatherman was given to him from his past employer and had a Intel logo on it and it was missing all the knife blades which should be unique.

[redacted] aid that her wallet had a few papers in it but she was really only concerned about her health insurance card and another card that had her Suntrust Savings account number written on it. She didn`t have the account number available at the time of the report but she was going to notify Suntrust to cancel the account as soon as they open.

Both [redacted] ad gone through the vehicle and moved it from the incident location to her residence. She had also thrown away the empty Camel Cigarette pack. I was able get it out of the dumpster next to her building and dusted it for latent prints. I lifted on print from the cellophane on the pack. I then dusted her 2009 Kia Sportage and lifted a latent print from the driver`s door handle that she thought was too big to be hers and a partial print from the driver`s door beside the handle. The latent pints were entered into evidence.
