Dear Inman,

On behalf of the Student Government Association, the representative voice for the student body of the University of Georgia, I hereby formally request your resignation from your position as Treasurer. Due to the circumstances involving your arrest on June 11, and the charges that were eventually dropped, your ability to effectively represent the best interests of the student body has been compromised. The role of Treasurer is critical for the future of this organization as one of our major responsibilities is the stewardship of the Student Activity Fee, a process that has been rescinded in light of these recent events. This incident has led to a complete loss of trust from SGA, campus administrators, and myself. You have blatantly gone against the wishes of myself, and others involved in the response to this situation, and therefore I see it impossible to come to amicable terms and re-establish a healthy working environment as an executive team.

I ask that you comply with this request to submit your resignation by Monday June 27, 2011 and that this resignation take effect immediately. Per the Oath of Office, which you took the evening of April 19, 2011, on behalf of the individuals representing this organization as well as the students of this university, it is apparent that your ability to "fulfill [your] obligations to the students and [your] duties as Treasurer, to the best of [your] ability" have been compromised as a result of this situation. Please note that if your letter of resignation is not submitted, President Pro-Tempore, Robbie Ottley is fully prepared to move into the impeachment process in order to rectify this situation and regain the trust of students and administrators at the University of Georgia.

I thank you for your service to the University of Georgia, and I wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Mallory Louise Davis
President, Student Government Association
