NARRATIVE

This incident recorded on Arbitrator and labeled 14-01-0718.

January 12, 2014:

At about 940pm I was running LIDAR speed detection on College Station Road. While doing so I observed a black vehicle traveling on College Station coming from Segrest Circle toward Barnett Shoals Road. The vehicle was outpacing other traffic around it. I visually estimated its speed to be approximately 50mph. I used my LIDAR to measure its speed. Its speed measured 52mph at 639.1ft away from my position. The speed limit on College Station Road in that particular area is 35mph.

Once the vehicle went past me I was able to tell that it was a black Honda Accord (GA TAG: [REDACTED]). I conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle. The vehicle pulled into the Tires Plus parking lot located at 1425 College Station Road. I then approached the driver who identified himself through his GA D/L as Shaquille Wiggins. There was another passenger in the front seat whom I did not identify at this time. I informed Mr. Wiggins why I stopped him. He stated that he was low on gas and that he wasn't aware of the speed limit on College Station Road.

I went back to my patrol vehicle to write a citation for speeding to Mr. Wiggins. I checked Mr. Wiggins' driver's license on GCIC. His Georgia D/L returned suspended and served for failure to appear. The serve date for the suspension was September 30, 2013.

I then went back to Mr. Wiggins to inform him that his license was suspended. He stated that he believed that the citation he had gotten in another jurisdiction had been taken care of. He further stated that he was going to start doing 80hrs of community service in reference to a super speeder citation. I then placed him under arrest for driving while suspended. Another officer arrived, SPO Dieball, who assisted me in finding out if the passenger was a licensed driver. The passenger in the vehicle was Davin Bellamy. Mr. Bellamy was a valid licensed driver. Mr. Wiggins requested that the vehicle be turned over to Mr. Bellamy.

Mr. Bellamy then left the scene with the vehicle. I transported Mr. Wiggins to the Clarke County Jail where deputies took custody of him.
