Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On the listed dates and times I was dispatched to the area of [REDACTED] in reference to an intoxicated college student beating on the door. The unknown caller relayed to dispatch that the male was falling into bushes and stumbling all over the place. I was given the description of a white male wearing white pants and a dark jacket. I was told he was last seen walking towards Oconee St. on Wilkerson St. I turned onto Wilkerson St. and observed a male matching that description walking on the sidewalk. The male was stumbling into the bushes and almost fell out into the roadway. I made contact with the male who identified himself as Jeffrey Kozicki. I could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath while I was speaking to him. He was also having a hard time maintaining his balance. His jeans were ripped and his jacket was inside out. I placed him under arrest DL/BB for underage consumption. I transported him to the Clarke County Jail where he was released into the custody of CCSO Deputies.
