Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 1-27-2013 at 0400 I met with [REDACTED] He said that while his car was parked in a parking lot at the corner of College Ave/Hancock Ave, where someone broke out the back passenger side window and stole his Tom Tom Gps from inside. He said that he parked it there at 2300 on 1-26-2013 and when he went back to it at 0400 the window was broken and the front passenger side door was standing open. There was some blood inside the vehicle on the center console, seat, and front passenger side window that [REDACTED] said was not there before. SPO King collected blood samples from the vehicle and will enter them into evidence. [REDACTED] did not have the serial number for the GPS at the time of report. I gave him a copy of the case number and told him how to get a copy of the report. I did not see any usable prints on the vehicle.
