Notes/NarrativesNARRATIVE

On 01/04/2013 I was dispatched the Statistics/ EITS building in reference to theft of lost or mislaid property. Upon arrival I made contact with [REDACTED] who advised me that he needed to file a report for a desk top computer that cannot be located. [REDACTED] advised me that the computer was purchased by the University of Georgia on 06/21/2007 and was used by [REDACTED] an employee of the University of Georgia who passed away in 2007. One of the documents turned over to me by [REDACTED] shows that the computer was scanned during inventory on 10/21/2009 and marked as found in 2011 but not scanned. [REDACTED] advised me that he believes these positive inventory entries to be false, and possibly just an error. [REDACTED] stated that the last time that the location of the computer was known was some time in 2007. The value of the computer at the time of purchase was $6,415.00.

There was no GCIC entry made due to no make or model information being available.

[REDACTED] was issued a CRN card. There is no MVR recording for this incident.
