Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 01/12/2014 at 1019 hours I was dispatched to the Chapel in reference to a report of criminal trespass. I met with the reporting party, [redacted] with Facilities Management, who stated that the project foreman, [redacted] discovered a broken window when he arrived on site on 01/12/2014 at 0745 hours. [redacted] stated that the window was intact when he left the site on 01/11/2014 at 2300 hours. The broken window is a single pane on the southwest side of the building. Facing the south side of the building from New College, the window is on the extreme left side.

The Chapel is currently undergoing renovation and restoration. As a circumstance of the construction, building material and scrap lumber is scattered outside the facility. It was the theory of Franklin`s, that a small block of scrap wood was used to brake the window as it was found inside the chapel under the broken window. The scrap piece was cut outside the Chapel and would normally be left on the ground outside the chapel.

[redacted] estimated the damage to be $150.00, materials and labor. Photographs were taken of the damage. [redacted] was given a case reference card.

Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On 01/07/2014 at 0758 hours I was dispatched to Creswell Hall in reference to a report of criminal trespass. Upon my arrival I met with [redacted] (Area Coordinator for Reed and Creswell) and [redacted] in the boy`s bathroom on the 9th floor. Anderson stated he was notified by employee [redacted] at 0745 hours that the window in the bathroom was broken out. The window was last seen intact around midnight during the RA`s checks. [redacted] advised there have been other instances of damage in this particular bathroom in the past year. [redacted] advised the cost to replace the window would be less than $500.00. Photos were taken and [redacted] was issued a CRN.
