

8801 & 8804 RIVERSIDE DRIVE

Explore a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity on the James. This incomparable property includes two circa-1910 log cabins, a mid-century addition by renowned architect Frederick “Bud”

Hyland, & 2.48 wooded acres on two parcels with sweeping river views & generous river frontage. Originally a family retreat, the main cabin is now an updated single family home. The foyer opens to a soaring 2-story great room with a massive stone fireplace, pine floors, timber beams, & windows that capture wooded & river views. Multiple seating & dining areas flow onto a full-width screened porch with 100° river views. The second cabin offers potential as a guest house, studio, or creative space. Located just west of Huguenot Flats near the bridge, this tranquil retreat is minutes from River Road, Libbie & Grove, & the Huguenot corridor.
