SATURDAYS

Black History Month Celebration

Saturday, Feb. 21 | 12–3 p.m.

Join us during Black History Month for a special Saturday event at the Library of Virginia honoring Black artists and storytellers (rescheduled from Jan. 31). This free event will feature a pop-up exhibition highlighting local Black artists, a genealogical show-and-tell presentation, guided tours of the “House to Highway: Reclaiming a Community History” exhibition, resource sharing from community partners, and reference and genealogical assistance.

The Culturescape Saturdays series is a new Library of Virginia programming initiative exploring the intersections of art, culture, history and community across Virginia.
