

Protest fires

Richmond firefighters responded to at least 48 fires that authorities believe were related to the Black Lives Matter protests during the first 18 days of the civil unrest in the city, causing at least $3.9 million in estimated losses.