

Gun purchase denials

Virginia's one-handgun-per-month law, which went into effect July 1, was by far the leading cause for people being denied the purchase of a firearm last month.

1. Felony conviction adult
2. Felony conviction juvenile
3. Attempt to exceed handgun purchase limit
4. Misdemeanor crime of domestic violence
5. Felony indictment
6. Felony warrant of arrest
7. Unlawful user of drugs
8. Protective order
9. Mental health
10. Misdemeanor warrant of arrest
11. Misdemeanor conviction of a crime punishable by more than two years
12. Undocumented immigrant
13. Nonimmigrant status
14. Virginia misdemeanor drug conviction (handguns only)
15. NICS denied persons file
16. Attempt to exceed trade limit
17. Purchaser ID requirements not met
18. Military dishonorable discharge
19. Other

