

TROILUS WINS — Bayard Sharp's Troilus, with Chris Rogers up, captures the $100,000 Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah yesterday. At the extreme

Troilus Wins;

First Landing

Places Third

MIAMI, FLA., Feb., 28—(4P)—Bayard Sharp's Troilus, second choice in the betting, ran a brilliant race to win the $135,-

700 Flamingo Stakes before 34,425 spectators at Hialeah Park

WHAT'S INSIDE

mother recalls recruiters.

wins IC4A mile.

column, Hoof Prints.

Page 2 - Jerry West's

Page 3 - Ron Delaney

Page 4-Shelley Rolfe's

Page 5-Walter Cralgie's

Page 5-Ruth Jackson's

Page 6-Central District

Basketball Tournament

Page 9-Max Aller's Out-

Pages 10-13-Business

Miss. State

Is Ruled Out

OXFORD, MISS., Feb. 28-

Opens at Arena Tomorrow.

Baseball Beat, other Baseball

left is First Landing, ridden by Eddie Arcaro, who finished third. Behind Troilus is Elkcam Stable's Open View, the second place finisher.

Gain 5th Straight SC Crown West and Patrone Pace Sharp-Shooting WVU

By Steve Guback

rena last night - and it was heavy-hitting Jorry West, with Mountaineers flattened daughty first championship bout. Citadel, 85-66, for their fifth consecutive Southern Conference championship.

Madison Square Garden a week from Tuesday to represent the conference in the NCAA East-Jones and a 13-point, 13-reern regional playoffs against an bound out put from forward at-large foe, not yet named.

At the Same Time

the same time, did their ented and whippet-fast, hatchet job on The Citadel's nopes midway in the second half. The Bulldogs, as tenacious as their nickname, had scrapped back to within a point

Page 1-B *

SPORTVIEW

By Chauncey Durden

Times-Dispatch Sports Editor

Virginia-William and Mary semifinals game of the Southern Conference tournament, the Mountaineers' brilliant Jerry West

"That was the biggest accident of the tournament," mur-

Just minutes later the graceful West Virginian took off in

"Well, West is human after all," said the just-quoted fellow.

It was then proved again that, no matter how dominant an

However, the Mountaineers would not have been within lege basketball player as anyone will ever see. And not just

Mac Pitt, who as a former coach deplores the all-offense,

"West is the finest basketball player ever to play in the Times-Dispatch

Sunday, March 1, 1959

That Name Again

missed a layup.

flow crowd of 5,006, the It was West Virginia the season's largest, and the blue clad visiting Citadel cadets roaring.

But West, who deserves every adjective he gets, and 27 points, and his second, Lee Patrone, with 20, who provided the gelden truth yeurs with the kayo punch for the second the golden touch, rammed in the next 12 West Virginia Never behind after the first to lift the Mounties' lead to 11 five minutes but under pressure and write finish to the ambionce in the second half, the tions of the Bulldogs in their

West Virginia, one of the nation's sharpest shooting teams, bagged 50 per cent of its shots, The victory was the 50th won the rebound battle 58-51 traight in the league for and came up with a pair of key these sprightly Mountaineers interceptions that touched off and they'll go to New York's The Citadel's skid. The Bull-Ray Graves, but they needed much more against a West Patrone and West, playing at Virgina team that is deep, tal-

The triumph ran West Virginia's record to 25-4. Despite the loss, the Citadel, 15-5, finished with its best mark in its of a tie, 48-47, to set the over-listory and goes back to Charleston with the satisfaction of getting further in this thought. Only one man, a reserve, will be graduated, so they figure to be back.

West, only a junior, was superb, as usual. In addition to his 27 points, he hauled in game-high total of 19 rebounds, swept enemy passes with quick hands, made six assists, and triggered the Mountaineers' fast break. He vas assigned the delicate task guarding Art Musselman, both previous games, and checked him with a meager seven. West finished the threeday tourney with 83 points—only two shy of the tourney record set by Duke's Dick Great in 1951.

What West left undone, sophomore Patrone was quick to accomplish. In the first half, he snapped the game's last tie, EARLY IN THE SECOND HALF of Friday night's West 18-18, with a long one hander and then poured in 10 of West Virginia's next 15 points as West Virginia opened a sevenpoint lead.

continued to occupy space in game. They kept coming from the Arena and to lock lovingly of the W&M conquest, Patrone of the W&M conquest, Patrone ended with nine-for-13 accuracy man with a hat that was a 54 points in 56 minutes for what must be a record output by a kiddies' football game pa-but it was fairly close and in-teresting until the Mountaindogs, 20-4, in one nine-minute something fresh and wonderrun, With the score 48-47 and fully new. This was the fifth game suddenly blew up. The Citadel made two bad basses and each killed 'em. West, leading the fast-break

son Atlantic Coast Conference

12-2 Record

North Carolina State.

Ties State For First In ACC CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Feb. place, each with a 7-7 record. second seven consecutive points, Deacons Defeat 28-(P)-Stocky Harvey Saiz Salz, who wound up with 21 cutting the Tar Heel lead to Heels a tie for the regular sea-lead down to a 49-49 tie.

basketball championship with Salz, a 6-1 junior from Brooklyn, N. Y., scored 17 points in utes left, Ray Stanley scored Duke full-court press and capi- of its floor shots. The Tar Heels, stung by suc- talized on free throws the rest cessive defeats by Maryland of the way, and Virginia in their last two North Car outings, tled North Carolina ing the first few minutes of the kin tallied 18 and Boyd 15 fo sparked third-ranked North points, took over with 8:20 left 33-28. The only score North Dayton by 66-57 Carolina to a 72-62 victory over in the second half after Duke Carolina could muster during Duke Saturday, giving the Tar had cut a 12-point Tar Heel the first three minutes of that half was a free throw by Moe.

Sophomore Fred Kast hit UNC Regains Lead

His four field goals helped the Tar Heels regain the lead at 61-52 with about four minutes left. Ray Stanley scored it wo free throws and senior field for the Tar Heels made 25 of 49

Sophomore Fred Kast hit nine straight points for the Blue Devils and he, along with Johnny Frye and Jack Boyd, helped Duke gain the 49-49 tie.

The Tar Heels made 25 of 49

Forest's regular season. The

The Tar Heels withstood a 50-39, hit on only 40 per cent and Dick Kepley 14 for Caro- 16 for Wake Foest. North Carolina, sluggish dur- lina, Sophomore Carroll Young- DAYTON outings, tled North Carolina ing the first few minutes of the State for first place in the ACC, each with 12-2 records. The regular season ended Saturday. Coin flips at Raleigh Sunday will determine the pairings in next week's ACC championship tournament, which determines the loop's NCAA entry.

In the first few minutes of the pairing in the first few minutes of the neighborhood Duke.

| Coin flips at Raleigh Sunday way of the first half. Sophomore Doug Moe led the way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage.

| Coin flips at Raleigh Sunday way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips at Raleigh Sunday way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips at Raleigh Sunday way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips at Raleigh Sunday way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips way as the Tar Heels increased the margin to 27-15, and they held at 32-21 halftime advantage. | Coin flips way as the Tar Heels increased the way as th

PYRAMID — West Virginia's Jerry West (44) and Bob Smith (21) flank The Citadel's Ray Graves (30) in leaping for a rebound. Walting for

Mounties Top Citadel, 85-66,

the outcome is Willie Akers (32) of the Mounties and The Citadel's Bob Blackledge (31) and Art Musselman

The Citadel's leading scorer in LOT OF CHARACTER'

Schaus Says Win Is 'Most Satisfying'

By Shelley Rolfe was a tough one. This was a Long after West Virginia had tough one. licked The Citadel for the Southern Conference champion- They won a lot of tough ones. "I'm happy for the team. ship, Mountaineer supporters Like the William and Mary and joys had done it again. A THERE WAS one terrifying well in hand in the second half shaking his head. A couple of Religing of the Mountaineau over George Washington and This wasn't a cliff hanger ladies wanted box scores of the like the two semifinal rounds, game to tuck among their souvenirs, By now they should have beeers put it away with their come accustomed to WVU tri- In Upset second half tear-and umphs in Richmond, but they then they outscored the Bull- were treating it as if it were

The Citadel in possession, the straight time. This is how customs get started. Most Satisfying

And, now, after the net cutting, the speeches and the

after the first interception, was trophy presentations, Freddie

UNC Defeats Duke, 72 to 62,

Bulldog Support. Has Troubles

The Citadel's basketball team had a tough road to get into the championship of Southern Conference Tournament for the first time in its history—but that's nothing compared to the road their supporters are taking.

Five bus loads of Citadel cadets, leaving at dawn, made the 430-mile trip to Richmond yesterday to lend their moral support to their team. Also arriving yesterday was Citadel president, Gen Mark

Faced with the problem of getting tickets, Citadel pub-licist Bill Stewart scurried around Friday night The Citadel's 53-52 triumph purchased a block of 150 general admission ducats.

Bolyard of the Mountaineers

Continued on Page 3, Col. 6

N. C. State Bows, 71-69,

To Eastern Kentucky

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 28-pwith six seconds remaining to ouled and sank a pair of free Schaus, winning coach, was (P)—Eastern Kentucky broke a fix the final margin. Continued on Page 3, Col. 5 | saying that of the one he counted most satistical North Carolina State, 71-69, wolfpack's last game of the

					•	~ ~ ~ ~
	G	F	T		G	F	7
Jpchurch	5	1-1	7	Pucillo .	. 7	5.5	19
Vood	. 9	0-1	18	MacGilly	4	6.7	14
olè	. 4	2.2		Richter .	. 4	5.9	13
Cotula _	. 3	1-3	. 7	Engleh'dt	5	2-2	12
doore	. 6	3.3		Stepan'ch	3	1-1	7
enciti .	. 2	0.0		Distefano	1	2-4	4
Vierwille	2	2-2	6	McCann	0	0.0	0
Totals	31	9-12	77	*****
				Totals	24	21-28	65
astern	Ken	tuck	У		34	37	-7 ī
1. C. St.	ate				57	32	-69

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Feb. 28 -- (P) -- Wake Forest's

Dayton more than matched the Deacons in field goals, hit-Moe wound up with 18 points ting on 32 of their shots to only data de la contrata del la contrata de la contrata del la contrata de la contrata del la contrata de la contrat	ing the first few minutes of the	lym rumen to and pold to fold	i. G	F T G	i F T

State for first place in the ACC,	game between the neighborhood	Duke.	Dubinsky 1	0-1 2 Budd	2 5-10 5 each with 12-2 records. The	arch rivals, pulled to a 15-7	DUIZE N. CAROLINA	Boykin 5	2-3 12 Ritchie _ 1 2-2 20dom _ 1	5 5·5 15 8·12 10
vocallan googen anded Catindan	arch rivals, pulled to a 15-7	DUKE N. CAROLINA		0.0 10 Broadway regular season ended Saturday.	lead midway of the first half.	Kistler 0 1.2 I Shaffer 3 0.0 6	Case 1	2.2 4Cullen	1 1-2 3
Com Hips at Raleigh Sunday	Sophomore Doug Moe led the	Hurt 3 2-3 8 Mna . 6 6.17 18	Cramsey (0.0 OForte	1 6.6
will determine the privings in	way as the Tar Heels increased	Youngkin 6 6-12 18 Kepley _ 5 4-4 14	M. Allen	2-2 16Wiggins (0-0 OSteple (J 1-2 2 will determine the pairings in	way as the far freels increased	Frye 1 4-7 6 Larese 3 0-3 6		0.0 OHart	า์ โ.เ ร
next week's ACC championship	the margin to 27-15, and they	Boyd 7 1-2 15 Salz 7 7-9 21 Watson _ 0 1-2 1 Lotz 1 2-2 4	Josefczyk 1	3.4 5 Greene	3 1-1 7
tournament, which determines	held at 32-21 halftime advan-	Robertson 1 2-3 4Stanley 0 3-3 3	Kennely 2		0 6-0 0
the loop's NCAA entry.		Kast 4 1-3 9 Grotty _ 0 0-0 0	l	Adkins (Mitchell (0.0 0
	tage,		p		, 0.0 0
Saturday's loss left Duke in	The young Blue Devils ripped	Totals22 18-33 62 Totals25 22-38 72	Totals32 1	3-16 57 Totals1	6 34-48 66
a tie with Maryland for third	hack after the rest named and	Duke 21 41—62 North Carolina 33 39—72	Dayton	2	8 2957
- AND ALVONS STREET TOTAL TOTAL MITTER	Indove writer mis test bettod with	North Carolina 33 3972	Wake Former	A 3	3 3366

Cavaliers Clinch Fifth, Trip Gamecocks,81-70

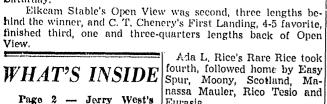

Virginia's late-starting Cavaliers clinched fifth place in the Atlantic Coast Conference bastwo-pointer near the end that two-pointer near the end that in its last 10 starts, gave the South Carolina spurt brought Cavallers a 6-8 ACC record the Gamecocks into the tleand a 10-13 over-all mark-both but not for long. exactly the same as last season. South Carolina finished in last

S. CAROLINA

South Carolina finished in last place in the ACC with a 2-12 mark and a 4-19 over-all slate.

Virginia never trailed but got one scare with six minutes left when the Gamecocks tied the when the Gamecocks tied the score at 59-50 on a field goal by Eurasia. Well Under Record Time for the mile and a furong was 1:49 1/5, well behind record of 1:47 set by mered an unbelieving fellow on the first row of the press sec-Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler tion.

in winning this feature in 1957. Troilus paid $6.90, $4.70 and flight from near the foul circle, sailed right up to the basket— $3.10 in the $2 mutuels. Open and missed a second layup. View returned $20.70 and $7.20 while show price on First Land-wen, west is numan after an," said the just-quoted fellow. With a second less than five minutes' playing time remain-land searlier this month, earned $86,070 for Sharp, a banker from Middletaum Dally wen, west is numan after an," said the just-quoted fellow. With a second less than five minutes' playing time remain-land in the game, West disclosed another human and roundball frailty. He committed a fifth personal foul, thereby becoming incligible for the remainder of the touch-and-go game.

banker from Middletown, Del. Troilus was first out of the outstanding performer may be on the basketball court, Dr. gate and Eurasia took over the Naismith's game remains essentially a team game. For, with lead as they rounded the club-the Mountaineers four points down to William and Mary, West's Eurasia, under sub, sophomore Lee Patrone, pumped in the necessary points lockey John Ruane, was half a to bring the Mountaineers safely through the semifinals. half mile but Troilus was along- hailing distance of the Indians had it not been for West's firstside and swept into the lead be- half performance. During a six-minute period shortly before fore they turned into the long the half ended, West pumped in 19 points for a first-half total backstretch.

of 26 points. During that hot streak, West was as much col-

First Landing, with Eddie for his scoring, for Jerry West is a "whole" basketball player. Arcaro up, was fourth for the first six furlongs and moved up no-defense game that basketball all too often is nowaseasons, to third when they entered the was talking about West's "wholeness, stretch. By then, Troilus was (IP)-Mississippi State's presi-three lengths in front and rundent ruled Saturday night that ming easily. Open View had "Sure, he's a scorer, one of the top scorers in the nation. But the basketball team cannot go moved, into second and was the basketball team cannot go have lengths should of the favto the NCAA tournament be- three lengths ahead of the favcause other teams will have orite. Arcaro was whipping and driving his mount on the out-

The decision left Kentucky, Troilus, son of Priam II out ciated Press poll, the certain finished in the money in six of Southeastern Conference rep- seven starts as a two-year-old, resentative in the scramble earning $21,746.

for the National Collegiate It was Troilus' third victory Athletic Association title.

fensive player, playmaker and, above all, he's a team man."

Ben Hilbun made the announcement at MSU's final game — the traditional clash with Mississippi, won by State, with Mississippi, won by State, At the end, Trollus still had of his fellow-players. He does everything superbly, without on the out-side but he didn't gain an inch on the leader as Chris Rogers ("You never see West do anything that would be questioned by his teammates. He never tries to show off at the expense of his fellow-players. He does everything superbly, without formed and ostentation. And he makes it all look so easy. by his teammates. He never tries to show off at the expense of his fellow-players. He does everything superbly, without Totals 13 33—66 against William and Mary). It Upchurch added a free throw Expense.

"Every time I see West play, I think of some words I heard the No. 1 team in the Asso- of Drift Song by Heliopolis, Knute Rockne say at a coaching clinic years and years ago. Describing the perfect athlete, Rockne said that athlete would be 'mentally concentrated and physically relaxed.'

"That's Jerry West-mentally concentrated, physically re-

A Calculated Risk

AFTER WEST VIRGINIA'S narrow escape against William and Mary, there was some questioning the Mountaineers' defense which gave W&M's Jeff Cohen unusual freedom in the center. The big Indian took full advantage of that "freedom," scoring 30 points and grabbing 21 rebounds.

The West Virginia defense was a calculated risk. It was CHARLOTTESVILLE, Feb. back in front, 67-61, as John 28—(P)—Flashy Paul Adkins Haner hit from the floor and scored 23 points and directed Bill Metzger tossed in two free and was 6-for-6 from the free-throw line for a total of 18 points.

hen a Coach Suffers

the second half of the regionally televised game to help the RICHMOND COACH LES HOOKER JR., for the first time

RICHMOND COACH LES HOOKER JR., for the first time

Tar Heels repel a late Duke during the surge;

The Tar Heels made 25 of 49 roresus regular season. ketball's standings with an 81gave the Cavaliers a 38-31 insince they've played the SC tournament at the semifinals games with an objective eye.

The semifinals games with an objective eye. since they've played the SC tournament at the Arena, watched surge.

The victory, Virginia's eighth the second half until the sudden Washington, and The Citadel's victory over the Colonials Friday night as examples of what makes a basketball coach suffer. "There's nothing a coach can do but suffer," said Hooker, when his team can't buy a basket. He can't put the ball in the hoop for his missing players. Take Virginia Tech Thursday night. George Washington was hot, and there was Bob Ayersscore at 59-59 on a field goal by Bob Frantz. Half a minute

Continued on Page 3, Col. 4