

ASK YOURSELF WHAT IS YOUR DREAM?

In celebration of Black History Month, we reached out to three prominent, local African-American citizens who have worked extensively to bring their dreams to life. Chef Michael Hall has been a major player in Richmond's vibrant dining scene for years, having served as general manager and executive chef at the Bull and Bear Club, executive chef at the Berkeley Hotel, owner of M Bistro in Rocketts Landing, and currently executive chef at the 2300 Club.

Sharon Dabney-Wooldridge is the founder, president and CEO of KleaneKare, a major commercial that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character. —Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

I HAVE A DREAM

cleaning company that employs 100 people locally. She hails from an entrepreneurial family as her father was once the owner of two Jackson Ward grocery stores.

In 1963, at the age of 17, Randy Adams was arrested and jailed in Danville, Va. during a nonviolent civil rights protest known as the Danville Movement. This was two months before Dr. King would give his "I Have a Dream" speech. Since that time, Dr. Adams has long been a local pediatric dentist; his practice geared toward infants, children and patients with special needs. ■

SEE BLACK HISTORY MAKERS ON NEXT PAGE.

PHOTO COURTESY OF YOICHI R. OKAMOTO, WHITE HOUSE PRESS OFFICE (WHPO) LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON LIBRARY AND MUSEUM. IMAGE SERIAL NUMBER: A2133-10

Altria Today

Creating Opportunity

Our commitment to diversity and creating opportunity – in the workplace and the community – is essential to Altria's continued success.

From local historically black colleges and universities to community groups giving voice to African American experiences, Altria supports organizations that help build an inclusive RVA.

Honoring a proud heritage of achievement, the people of Altria celebrate Black History Month.

Philip Morris USA
U.S. Smokeless Tobacco Company
John Middleton
Nu Mark
Ste. Michelle Wine Estates

Altria

Take a closer look at ALTRIA.COM

©Copyright 2015 Altria Group, Inc.