BLACKSBURG MASTER CHORALE

Handel's Messiah

Dwight Bigler, music director

Sunday, December 14, 4 PM

The New River Valley's own Blacksburg Master Chorale is joined by a professional orchestra and soloists to present one of the most iconic works of the holiday season, Handel's Messiah. Experience the power, beauty, and grandeur of this beloved oratorio, featuring the sound of more than 100+ singers filling the Anne and Ellen Fife Theatre for the glorious and resounding Hallelujah Chorus. Voices soar in celebration of faith, hope, and joy, with the radiant sound of one of the greatest choral works ever composed. Whether you're a devoted fan or experiencing Messiah for the first time, this performance will uplift your spirit and usher in the holiday season with majesty and grace.
