THE ROANOKE TIMES

roanoke.com

DR. MICHELLE SPANGLER has been practicing veterinary medicine for over 20 years. Her love of animals led her to a career in improving their lives. She purchased Old Dominion Vet Clinic so she could continue her lifelong commitment to pet health in the Troutville and Roanoke Communities.

As Roanoke locals, Michelle and Sam Spangler are proud to be part of the community. ODVC is a family practice that serves Roanoke, Troutville, and the surrounding areas, dogs, cats, and their people.

ODVC is a Fear Free informed practice with Fear Free certified vets and staff. The Fear Free movement was designed to alleviate and prevent pet fear at vet's appointments and in other animal-related fields. We're proud to work hard to make your pet's appointment as pleasant as possible.

Thank You

From all of us here at Old Dominion Veterinary Clinic for your support and voting for us.

We look forward to continuing care for your animals and serve the Troutville and Roanoke Valley areas.
