

CONGRATULATIONS to the following Cold Hollow Career Center students that were recognized for their

EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS!

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY AWARD

Aiden Dion

SELF DEVELOPMENT

Aiden has taken the opportunity to practice and gain confidence in his skills. This has led to him working efficiently and making sure others are as well.

Bryce Fuller

PROFESSIONALISM

Bryce has shown professionalism in his co-op placement and pride in his work. He keeps everyone up-to-date and has been able to balance his apprenticeship classes and job duties.

BUSINESS LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Lakota Hayes

CRITICAL THINKING

Lakota demonstrated her ability to approach situations with curiosity in her two job shadows this month.

Payton Tracy

SELF-DEVELOPMENT

Payton has pushed her comfort zone to apply her business plan in Intro to Business to a real passion she has for art. She has set personal and professional goals for this work and is working hard to bring them to life.

CONSTRUCTION TECHNOLOGY AWARDS
	Ryan Burrington ----- SELF-DEVELOPMENT In the trades there is a saying. "The only person better than me, is me tomorrow." Ryan Burrington has truly embraced this mantra. He comes prepared everyday, he puts 100% effort into the tasks at hand and always finds a way to one up himself the next day!
	Stewart Pratt ----- COMMUNICATION Stewart dissects a given task with curiosity, thinking ahead for any potential problems and finding solutions to avoid them. A skill not often found in trainees of his age.

FORESTRY + NATURAL RESOURCES
	Grady Butler ----- SELF-DEVELOPMENT Grady has taken huge steps in working effectively with all of his classmates. He has shown that he can make responsible choices and take ownership of the outcome of his choices both good and questionable.
Photo missing ~ On Co-Op	Grady Boyle ----- PROFESSIONALISM Grady since being on Co-op has shown that he can regularly set goals and work to accomplish them, to earn the ability to co-op he was constantly working efficiently and focusing on the task. Since being on Co-op he has accessed one college course and has signed up for a second.

MEDICAL CAREERS EXPLORATION AWARDS
	Nevaeh Lefebvre ----- RELATIONSHIP BUILDING I loved seeing your relationship with the residents and the way they reacted to you. It was obvious that you take very good care of them and have built a trusting nurse-patient relationship. You have become a positive influence in our classroom, and I appreciate your hard work and growth.
	Addison Gratton ----- SELF-DEVELOPMENT Addison is responsible, dependable, and hardworking. She shows up everyday- phone away & ready to learn!
PRETECH
	Elie Moody ----- PROFESSIONALISM Elie is always one of the first ones to volunteer for a project, community service or other assignment. Elie's professionalism shined when he spent a 10 hour day Saturday selling Wreaths and Trees for our FFA Chapter. Keep it up Elie!
	Kelcie Sartelle ----- SELF-DEVELOPMENT Kelcie continually looks for ways to have new experiences, learn new things and build new skills.
