

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, Albin D. Voegele was born on March 31, 1940, as the son of the late Albin B. and Violet (Ardleigh) Voegele, and grew up in Brooklyn, New York; and

WHEREAS, Albin D. Voegele served proudly as a U.S. Army Counterintelligence Officer in the in West Germany during the Cold War, providing invaluable contributions to national security, while conflict continued in Vietnam and civil unrest raged on in his home country; and

WHEREAS, following his honorable military discharge, Albin Voegele moved to Vermont along with his wife, Roberta Jean Voegele, and both of these stalwart citizens dedicated the rest of their living years to the health and security of Vermonters, fulfilling the dreams of their lives; and

WHEREAS, Albin served as town manager for both the Towns of Colchester and St. Albans, during an eventful span of five decades, leading with a deeply conscientious and compassionate care for his fellow Vermonters; and

WHEREAS, Albin also served on the Vermont State Board of Education, as director of the Vermont Business Round Table, as director of the Lake Champlain Housing Trust, and as director of Lake Champlain Regional Chamber of Commerce, including numerous other town and state boards; and

WHEREAS, Albin died in St. Albans, Vermont, on August 11, 2025, with his last thoughts focused on local governance and the happiness of the people of Vermont; and

WHEREAS, Albin D. Voegele is survived by his daughter Rebecca Voegele, his brother Richard Voegele, his niece, Tara Webster and her family (George Murphy, Eamon Murphy, Eadoin Murphy, and Eagan Murphy), and his best friend of 83 years, Russell Johnson; and

WHEREAS, Albin D. Voegele was predeceased by his wife, Roberta Jean Voegele, and his sister, Gail Voegele Webster.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim September 9, 2025 as

ALBIN D. VOEGELE DAY
in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 9th day of September, A.D. 2025.

_____
Philip B. Scott
Governor

_____
Jaye Pershing Johnson

Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs