EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS!

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY AWARD

Ben Charbonneau

PROFESSIONALISM

Ben has had almost perfect attendance for the year, is one of the first to class everyday, and follows CHCC procedures.

Jesse Lesperance

COMMUNICATION

Jesse consistently gets good reviews of his customer communications from staff. He uses his knowledge to help explain what is needed or what the repair was.

BUSINESS LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Alix Roberts

COMMUNICATION

Alix has demonstrated clear and effective communication based on audience and purpose in our Effective Workplace Communication coursework. Specifically, she is able to independently identify appropriate approach and content placement for written workplace communication that keeps the lines of communication open, preserves relationships, and provides essential information professionally.

Julia Willey

Self-Development

Julia has focused on her own growth and self-development by committing to and completing two independent college courses this semester. She also committed to a college and has navigated challenging decisions with tenacity and determination.

CONSTRUCTION TECHNOLOGY AWARDS

Elijah Papanno

PROFESSIONALISM

Elijah is a quiet leader. He holds himself and others to a high standard. Elijah is dedicated to his craft, is always willing to help crew mates and goes out of his way to help finish projects and see things through.

Austen Wilde

CRITICAL THINKING

Austen is mature well beyond his years. He arrives prepared, meets deadlines, and treats peers, and Cold Hollow instructors with respect.

FORESTRY + NATURAL RESOURCES

Garret Snider

PROFESSIONALISM

Garret is here everyday, he shows up with a positive attitude and a willingness to work with any and all of his classmates. He is willing to ask questions and is always looking to understand why.

MJ Emch

Self-Development

MJ has busted his butt all school year, he has taken physical setbacks and turned them into academic gains. He has put his nose to the grind stone and I am very proud of the accomplishments that he has made this year.

HUMAN SERVICES + TEACHER PREP AWARDS

Cassidy Shantie

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

Cassidy is an expert relationship builder with the students that she works with in her Co-Op.

MEDICAL CAREERS EXPLORATION AWARDS

Braelyn Stevens

Critical Thinking

Braelyn has been working hard in Human Growth and Development, producing thoughtful completed work (on-time)!

Cassidy Blaney

Self-Development

Despite undergoing major surgery, they demonstrated remarkable determination by missing very few days of school and continuing to stay engaged in their learning and responsibilities. Their grit, strength, and self-discipline have been evident in the way they faced challenges with resilience and maturity. They consistently pushed through difficult circumstances while maintaining a positive attitude and commitment to their goals, serving as an inspiring example to both peers and staff.

PRETECH

Mollie Smith

Self-Development

Mollie has shined the last few weeks during both our Spring Projects and FFA. Mollie is excited to learn new things, build new skills and is a wonderful team player in any team she is on.

David Kane & Sawyer Stiebris

Self-Development

David and Sawyer have shown significant growth during their Spring Project. Both students have shown motivation, self direction and dependability throughout, and continue to want to learn more.
