

Students are still missing school at record-high rates

Chronic absenteeism rate, 2018-19 versus 2022-23:

The chronic absenteeism rate is the percent of students who miss 10% or more of the school year. Some states are not included because they used a different definition or had missing data.

Source: State departments of education / Graphic: Sharon Lurye and Thomas Dee