There are options to add in some extra icons for an additional charge (examples: VFW logo, military branch logos, religious symbols, etc.).

When you choose to publish your obituary with us, you will reach our online audience, along with our print audience. Obituaries are also displayed on Ancestry.com, so anyone exploring family tree information would be able to read the obituary. If you or a family member requests, we can get you a jpg or pdf of the paid obituary; you are then free to share and/or post on social media sites.
