Nothing is more important than keeping your child safe.

Early in the pandemic, COVID posed the biggest risk to adults. But in January, there were over 2 million COVID cases in kids. As soon as your child is old enough, protect them with a safe and effective COVID vaccine. If you have questions, talk to a doctor today.

Find vaccines near you at vaccines.gov