Welcome to The Best of 2021 Guide

If you take a few moments to notice, you'll see there's much to celebrate in Tehachapi.

Our mountain community really has it all — good food, good people, good charities, good businesses and so much more.

Today we announce the winners of our annual Tehachapi News Readers' Choice Poll.

We polled our readers on everything from the best community organization to the best teacher, from the best burger place to the best pizza.

The votes are tabulated; in these pages, we present who won "best" and who was named a "favorite."

So take a look and see who earned high marks!
