I very seldom take off and it is Christmas but if that is the way you want it - that's fine. I will not leave my desk. If you think I wanted to hang with Carla today you are wrong. They will be going to graduation at 12:30 and with their family all day and night. I have had prior approval before and still didn't get to take off. You heard me cancel my doctor's appointment that I only scheduled to do while my mother was here and so she could help me out afterwards. You don't always get to pick the time you want with a doctor. But I am treated like I am in kindergarten and need a pass. Nobody else is. A 52 year old woman should not have to do that unless you think she's lying and I have NEVER lied about a doctor's appointment nor would I. I've always said if a boss treats you well you will bust your butt for them. I've busted my butt for you with the hope that you would appreciate my work and you have not said one kind word to me. I have tried every day to do my best around here and help other people. I am completely shocked.

We visited for a few minutes and they left a few minutes late because Kat and Elison dropped by. I never know your plans and certainly don't want to intrude. Are you coming in? Fred wants to bring you something when you are here.

OLD STATE CAPITOL EXHIBIT FEATURES NEW ORLEANS ARTIST

In order to pay homage to the upcoming celebration of the bicentennial of statehood, Louisiana's Old State Capitol will feature award winning painter Rolland Golden in the exhibit "River and Reverie: Paintings of the Mississippi River by Rolland Golden" from Dec. 7-22, 2011 and Jan. 17 through March 10, 2012. Golden's stunning works of the Mississippi River's majesty and grandeur are displayed in a variety of media.

A native from New Orleans, Golden graduated from the John McCrady Art School in New Orleans. His work has been recognized with awards from the National Arts Club, the American Watercolor Society and the National Watercolor Society. His most recent honor was a Visual Arts Award from the Mississippi Institute of Art and Letters.

The Old State Capitol, located at 100 North Blvd., is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, visit www.sos.la.gov/osc or www.louisianaoldstatecapitol.org.

The next time you have the nerve to throw up to me or question the hour I arrive or leave this office will be the last time. You couldn't keep my schedule if your life depended on it. Please let me know how much I owe for you to have done picture remember I bought canvas and believe some of paint since you made a issue of it I have know idea how much to pay you and since you have made such a big deal out of no where on all this you tell me as you know I have also agreed to pay the entire cos of Alla's also. You have insulted me once again in implying that I am not paying you . Once again you screw yourselve cause your christmas present will be your mother and sister giclee. You are a unbeivale person. My invitation to take you to lunch was at that moment period but it all about you when you want and your timeline you will have $ tomorrow bring original and one copy . You did not respond to my request for the check, purposely I suppose. If you don't want the painting you are not obligated of course but I would appreciate a response.

If it was not a last minute thought to ask me to lunch maybe you should have done so before 11:45. Apparently you didn't leave until 12:30 which is fine for you when you come in at 9:30. I got your numbers too. You are just mad at me. Silly.

Well you better tell Kyle and Brenda cause I'm not touching the calendar. You did see the email from Kyle below right? I'm sure he thinks I screwed something up but hey, I'm just forwarding everything to Brenda. And You are talking the 9th? (not tomorrow, right?). My calendar must be observing daylight savings time.

My calendar shows 10 and 11. Brenda's shows 9 and 10. I called her and she said there were 2 separate meetings and they are both with Carla and her calendar shows 9 and 10.

Could someone tell me which appointment is the correct one to meet with Carla? There is one at 9 and one at 10. I can't plan my day until such time as I know what time is the correct one.

Thanks,

Kyle

Merietta and Angie want to meet with you in the morning. Angie has to leave by noon. Will you be available to discuss the St. Tammany issue?
