

HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS

4

Companies accused of gross environmental negligence, labor, abuse and forcing communities from their homes

	Location of offense	Investment amount FY 2014	Return on Investment FY 2014	Offense
Glencore Xstrata Mining	Democratic Republic of Congo	$6,382,263	8.3%	Employing children as young as 10 in ITS copper mines, according to BBC and Mining Watch Canada
BHP Billiton Plc Mining	Columbia, Brazil	$5,429,446	9.7%	Forced evictions of 700 Colombians to make room for a mine; dam burst in Brazil that killed at least 15, according to London Mining Network and Wall Street Journal
Rio Tinto Plc Mining	Papua New Guinea	$5,231,416	8.8%	Poor conditions at the mine in Bougainville instigated civil war, according to Reuters and Hearts and Mines
Hon Hai Precision Company Electronics	China	$4,669,127	42.5%	Owner of Foxconn Technologies, whose poor labor conditions created high worker suicide rates, according to The New York Times
Anglogold Ashanti Ltd. Mining	South Africa, Democratic Republic of Congo	$2,029,109	- 33.0%	Exposing 17,000 workers to Silicosis in South Africa; funding warlords in the Congo, according to Human Rights Watch
Barrick Gold Mining	Papua New Guinea	$1,930,041	- 45.6%	Contracted security forces conducted mass rapes of women in the surrounding community, according to Human Rights Watch
Vedanta Resources Mining	India	$1,529,043	- 41.6%	Forced evictions of communities without just compensation, according to Amnesty International
Vale SA Mining	Brazil	$750,725	- 44.8%	Convicted by the Brazilian government of overworking employees and accused of spying on political dissidents, according to Amazon Watch and Wall Street Journal
African Barrick Gold Mining	Tanzania	$710,794	- 4.1%	Contracted brutal, corrupt police force who killed 16 people, according to Mining Watch Canada and The Guardian
Katanga Mining Company Mining	Democratic Republic of Congo	$571,123	29.1%	Employing children as young as 10 years old in their Tilwezembe copper mine, according to BBC and Mining Watch Canada
Vinci Construction Construction	Qatar	$262,865	2.2%	Broke Qatar labor laws by overworking employees in extreme heat, according to Amnesty International and Reuters
Bolloré SA Mining	Liberia	$180,586	213.1%	40 percent owner of a company accused by the United Nations of using child labor, according to the United Nations
Hyundai Engineer and Construction Construction	Qatar	$97,401	13.0%	Workers contracted by the company were held for four months before being allowed to leave, according to Amnesty International
Foxconn Technology Electronics	China	$71,168	-0.1%	Poor labor conditions at Apple factory that drove workers to suicide, according to The New York Times
LPP SA Clothing Company	Bangladesh	$13,086	412.8%	Contracted work to a garment factory that collapsed and killed 1,127 workers, according to Radio Poland and The New York Times

IRAN SANCTIONED COMPANIES

Companies with direct ties to the Iranian government and banned for investment by some Texas public funds

	Investment amount FY 2014	Return on Investment FY 2014	Offense
Sinopec Group Overseas Development Oil and Gas	$802,208	37.38%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
*China Petroleum and Chemical Oil and Gas	$530,206	37.4%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
*PetroChina Oil and Gas	$494,858	25.7%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
Kunlun Energy Oil and Gas	$206,006	10.9%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
*Petronas Chemicals Group Chemicals	$169,135	- 4.4%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Oil and Gas	$106,374	10.3%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
China Oilfield Services Oil and Gas	$82,112	70.2%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
Daelim Industrial Oil and Gas	$75,087	42.3%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
*MISC Berhad Shipping	$55,060	14.2%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
China BlueChemical Chemicals	$51,008	- 21.5%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
*Petronas Gas Oil and Gas	$42,886	129.6%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
*Petronas Dagangan Oil and Gas	$22,516	103.6%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
KLCC Property Holdings Construction	$21,001	119.0%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran
Malaysia Marine and Heavy Engineering Shipping	$15,285	- 24.5%	Accused by the State of Texas of significant dealings with the Government of Iran

*Also accused by the State of Texas of being "directly involved" in the genocide in Darfur, Sudan

Graphic by Claire Shepherd, information collected by Spencer Davis — THE BATTALION