Section 3 – How to make Representation

The grounds on which you may make representation are set out in the table listed below. If you think that one or more of the listed grounds applies to your case, representation may be made at www.glasgow.gov.uk within 28 days from the date of service of this Notice. Alternatively, please complete this form and return it to Glasgow City Council, PO Box 25068, Glasgow, G1 1ZE

The Council will consider your representation, and, if you have sufficient grounds, the Council will cancel the Charge Notice. If we reject your formal representation, we will send you an appeal form that you can complete and send to Parking and Bus Lane Appeals, where an independent adjudicator will review your case.

You may appeal on any of the statutory grounds of appeal and the adjudicator's decision is final and binding on both parties.

Please note that representations made outside the 28 day period may be disregarded. You may also request a copy of the contravention evidence (either video or still images) by writing to the Council at the address opposite.

If you do not either (a) make payment within 28 days, beginning with the date of service of this Notice, or (b) make a representation (as explained in Section 3) within 28 days of the date of service of this Notice, then your option to make a representation may no longer apply and a Charge Certificate may be sent to you meaning that the charge will increase by 50% from £60.00 to £90.00.

If the full Charge is not paid by you then the Charge Certificate may be passed to Sheriff Officers for enforcement of payment.
