

South Texas border counties that voted for Trump and shifted right (geographically from the Rio Grande Valley, stretching northwest) on Nov. 5, 2024:

County	Percentage won	Percentage shifted more Republican than 2020
Cameron	53% Trump- 47% Harris	19%
Willacy	51% Trump- 48% Harris	15%
Hidalgo	51% Trump- 48% Harris	20%
Kenedy	73% Trump- 26% Harris	15%
Starr	58% Trump- 42% Harris	21%
Kleburg	56% Trump- 43% Harris	11%
Duval	55% Trump- 45% Harris	13%
Webb	51% Trump- 49% Harris	25%
LaSalle	60% Trump- 40% Harris	8.8%
DiMitt	51% Trump- 48% Harris	21%
Maverick	59% Trump- 40% Harris	28%
Uvalde	66% Trump- 33% Harris	13%
Kinney	75% Trump- 24% Harris	7.1%
Val Verde	63% Trump- 36% Harris	17%
Edwards	86% Trump- 13% Harris	5.2%
Terrell	78% Trump- 22% Harris	8.1%
Brewster	56% Trump- 43% Harris	8.3%
Pecos	72% Trump- 27% Harris	5.6%

South Texas county voting data breakdown based on Texas Secretary of State data, New York Times and The Center Square analysis, Nov. 6, 2024