Alaina Hampton v. Democratic Party of Illinois/Democratic Majority and Friends of Michael J. Madigan

EEOC Charge No. _____

Background Information:

I worked for the Democratic Party of Illinois/Democratic Majority ("Democratic Party") for approximately five years.¹ I was first hired in or around August, 2012, after I graduated from college with a degree in political science, as a field organizer. As a field organizer, I first worked on Sue Scherer's successful campaign for Illinois State Representative for the 96th District. Thereafter, I was assigned to work on Kathleen Willis' campaign for State Representative for the 77th District. My regional supervisor was 13th Ward Alderman Marty Quinn ("Alderman Quinn"), who became my mentor.

Shortly thereafter, the Democratic Party asked me to work on Illinois House Speaker Michael J. Madigan's ("Speaker Madigan") legislative staff, which I did from March 2013 through April 2014.² I worked out of Representative Silvana Tabares' 21st District Office on the southwest side of Chicago. Again, my supervisor was Alderman Quinn. While working with the legislative staff, I also spent time working for a democratic candidate on a campaign in Champaign, Illinois.

In or around September 2014, I volunteered on Sam Yingling's campaign for Illinois State Representative for the 62nd District. Shortly thereafter, Shaw Decremer, who formerly worked on Speaker Madigan's staff and is now a lobbyist who volunteers on Speaker Madigan's campaigns, asked me to manage Alderman Deb Mell's campaign, which I did, successfully, from December, 2014 through March, 2015.

In or around November, 2015, Shaw Decremer and Alderman Quinn asked me to manage Juliana Stratton's campaign against incumbent State Representative Ken Dunkin. I managed Ms. Stratton's successful campaign from approximately December, 2015 through March, 2016. The campaign was very high profile because Speaker Madigan wanted the incumbent, Ken Dunkin, out of office. It ended up becoming a $5 million campaign.

¹ Throughout the time I was employed by the Democratic Party of Illinois/Democratic Majority, my salary was paid by the Democratic Majority and Friends of Michael J. Madigan. A copy of sample W2s are attached hereto as Exhibit B.

² Speaker Madigan is the Chairman of the Democratic Party of Illinois, Friends of Michael J. Madigan and the 13th Ward Democratic Organization.

Sexual Harassment and Retaliation (Failure to Hire):

After Juliana Stratton won the election, Alderman Quinn and Speaker Madigan³ informed me that they wanted me to become a more permanent member of the Democratic Party organization and therefore arranged for me to work at Chicago Heights Economic Development Corporation ("Chicago Heights"). Despite working full time for Chicago Heights, I was also expected to work for the Democratic Party, which I did from approximately July, 2016 through April, 2017.

During this time, I was working on three separate democratic campaigns. My direct supervisor was Kevin Quinn, Alderman Quinn's brother, who worked directly for Speaker Madigan.⁴ Alderman Quinn also served as my supervisor. Kevin Quinn, however, was responsible for directing me, on a daily basis, to any one of the three campaigns I was working on.

Beginning in or around August, 2016, Kevin Quinn, began pursuing me romantically despite being my supervisor, 15 years my senior, and married with children. From approximately August, 2016 through February, 2017, Kevin Quinn called me repeatedly, late at night, and sent me dozens of text messages asking me out, telling me I was hot and urging me to go out with him. These inappropriate, uncomfortable and unwelcomed text messages of a romantic nature continued on a regular basis despite the fact that I informed him, repeatedly, that I wanted to keep our relationship strictly professional and that I did not want to be involved with him. A sample of these text messages are attached hereto as Exhibit C and incorporated herein by reference. Despite my repeated statements that I only wished to maintain a professional relationship, he would not take no for an answer.

My first instinct was not to complain about what was happening to me. I was afraid that by complaining I would hurt my mentor and supervisor, Alderman Quinn, who is Kevin Quinn's brother. But after living in fear for so many months and experiencing crippling anxiety with every text and phone call I received, I knew I had to do something to protect myself. My anxiety got so bad that I oftentimes had to leave work early. Kevin's conduct was making it impossible for me to do my job. So, finally, in mid-February, 2017, I went to Alderman Quinn to seek help. It was my last option. My loyalty and admiration for Alderman Quinn was unmatched. I did not want to tell him about the sexual harassment because I knew it would hurt him to know who was doing it to me, but I was suffering alone and could not deal with it anymore.

But Alderman Quinn offered no real solution. He informed me that I could "block" Kevin on my phone and that I would no longer have to report to Kevin directly. However, Alderman Quinn stated that he wanted my next assignment within the Democratic Party to be working as a precinct officer. Working as a precinct officer, however, would require me to report directly to ³ Alderman Quinn and Speaker Madigan share office space for their respective ward and district offices.

⁴ According to online public filings and/or records, Kevin Quinn's salary, during the relevant time period, was paid by Friends of Michael J. Madigan. Alderman Quinn also received a salary from Friends of Michael J. Madigan.

Kevin Quinn, the very man who was harassing me. As such, I told Alderman Quinn that I needed a few months to think about it. In or around April, 2017, since there was no way I could go back to working with Kevin Quinn, I told Alderman Quinn that I was accepting a job running a congressional campaign, which the Democratic Party was not involved. Alderman Quinn was very upset with my decision.

On or about November 1, 2017, I wrote a letter to Speaker Madigan to explain the circumstances surrounding my departure from the Democratic Party as I did not believe Alderman Quinn had informed Speaker Madigan of what had transpired. A copy of the letter is attached hereto as Exhibit D and incorporated herein by reference. I did not want the Speaker to think I had just abandoned my job for no reason. However, when I finally had the courage to report the events that had transpired directly to the head of the Democratic Party, in hopes of returning to work on upcoming campaigns in my former role, I was contacted by Speaker Madigan's Chief Counsel, Heather Wier Vaught, who minimized the sexual harassment I experienced and falsely told me that the party was not getting involved in a specific campaign for which I was well suited to provide assistance and wanted to work on. After that, I was repeatedly ignored by Ms. Vaught.⁵ As such, in or around January, 2018, I contacted Alderman Quinn directly regarding other opportunities to work on upcoming campaigns as I had so successfully done in the past. Alderman Quinn did not respond. Instead, immediately upon reaching out to Alderman Quinn, I received a call from Ms. Vaught, and she once again dismissed me.

In the end, I was forced out of a career that I loved and had worked so hard for simply because I ultimately found the courage and strength to come forward and report the unlawful sexual harassment that I endured at the hands of my supervisor, Kevin Quinn. Despite my complaints, Kevin Quinn was not dismissed or otherwise reprimanded for his conduct, and continued to work in a supervisory capacity for the Democratic Party/Friends of Michael J. Madigan. As I was preparing to file this charge, on February 12, 2018, the Democratic Party issued a statement stating that they were firing Kevin Quinn, more than one year after I first complained of this harassment.

I think the zeros can be persuaded but I think it will require Merry talking to them personally probably 2 more times before the election. It's early still and I know McAuliffe will continue to tell people she is with MJM. That hurts her there a lot.

People like Merry when they meet her. I think she can persuade most people, they're just getting confused with McAuliffes mail.

Kevin

I sent Mike a note as well. This is completely unacceptable for these guys.

Fri, Nov 18, 08:35

It has been bizarre but I know they've been busy with campaign stuff. Let me know if it gets dropped there today

I just spoke with rich he said that the delivery will be here in 1 hour.

Awesome, thank you

If you choose to use breaker press again, include me on the early email exchanges if you want.

Kevin

I appreciate it. It really was a bizarre encounter but not a big deal

Why are you adamant in asking?

Because you speak to certain people in the office. Right?

I call Rose to talk about my trips abroad but nothing else

And sue?

Same but I have only talked to her about traveling. All of them I only talk to about traveling That's good. You can tell them that I asked you out if u want.

I won't

To take you out for a drink. It's not going to happen. Right?

Correct

And would be different if I was not affiliated with the 13 ward

Sun, Dec 18, 15:39

Said differently, if I didn't know you and you didn't know me and I bumped into you at a Starbucks and began to talk and I asked you out. You would say no?

Sat, Jan 7, 17:26

Why is it your desire to work on the governors race?

Sat, Jan 7, 19:22

Because it will be an important race to the Speaker. I want a new challenge, and I think I'm qualified to do it.

So what happens if you work

So what happens if you work for the dem candidate and they win but the Speaker loses the speakership because he loses
x amount of seats

That won't happen

We don't take chances

Sun, Jan 8, 18:01

U disagree with my assessment?

I don't think the Speaker's speakership is dependent on whether or not I work on a state house race or the governors race. He is a powerful, intelligent man with a large staff and a very supportive network.

Regardless, it is something I will talk to MO about and the

They have both always pushed me to be great. I don't think it's unrealistic to bring it up.

Yes it does matter. You should be so defensive as we are both on the same team

Yes we are. That's why I don't understand why you would ask me a question like that.

I have been nothing but a loyal, hard worker for the speaker. I don't do anything that's not in the way interest of the organization. Me asking for a new challenge is not unfair.

I need you to know the truth about why
I left the 15th Ward.

In August 2012, Kevin began sending me inappropriate text messages. On several occasions in the span of nearly 16 months,
I told him to stop and that I was only interested in having a professional relationship.
Since I was helping with the election,
I had no choice but to communicate with him to fulfill my role. I was scared that he would tell me or you that I was not cooperating if I stopped responding to him.
In February 2017, I told him - the hardest thing I ever did in my life. He still expected me to work with the ward, but I was too scared. I apologize for what seemed like an act of betrayal. I had to protect myself.

I do not want to hurt any of you - I care very deeply about people involved. I only needed to tell you because it has been very painful to experience alone.
