Soto, Mets agree to record $765M, 15-year contract ► Steelers

DALLAS (AP) — Star outfielder Juan Soto and the New York Mets agreed Sunday to a record $765 million, 15-year contract, a person familiar with the deal told The Associated Press, a deal that could escalate to $805 million and is believed to be the largest pact in team sports

The person spoke on condition of anonymity because the agreement, first reported by the New York Post, was subject to a successful physical.

While there are no definitive records in sports beyond the United States, Soto's deal is thought to eclipse those in all other team sports. The deal, spurning the New York Yankees' attempt to retain the star who helped them reach the World Series, was reached on the eve of the first full day of baseball's annual winter meetings.

He would have the right to opt out of the contract after the 2029 season if the Mets don't at that time increase the average annual value by $4 million annually. Soto will get a $75 million signing bonus, payable

Soto's agreement is the largest and longest in Major League Base-

Soto was 19 when he made his major league debut with Washington in 2018 and helped the Nationals win the World Series the following year, when he hit .282 with 34 homers and 110 RBIs.

He turned down Washington's $440 million, 15-year offer in 2022 and was traded that August to San Diego. Following the death of Padres owner Peter Seidler, Soto was dealt to the Yankees in December 2023 and helped New York reach the World Series for the first time since 2009.

Soto batted .288 with 41 homers, 109 RBIs and 129 walks, hitting second in the batting order ahead of Aaron Judge to power an offense that led the major leagues with 237 homers. He hit a go-ahead homer in the AL Championship Series opener against Cleveland and a tiebreaking, three-run homer in the 10th inning that won the pennant against the Guardians in Game 5.

Soto has a .285 batting average with 201 homers, 592 RBIs and 769 walks over seven major league sea-

Not so much anymore. Pittsburgh has a 99% chance of reaching the postseason for the fourth time in five years.

Injuries

Defensive tackle Larry Ogunjobi — selected as the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee last week — left in the second quarter with a groin injury. Defensive tackle Montravius Adams (knee) is trending toward playing for the first time since October and could be available in Philadelphia.

Key number

Plus-28 — the Steelers' turnover margin since the start of the 2023 season, tops in the NFL.

Next steps

Try to do something they haven't done in nearly 60 years: beat the Eagles on the road. Pittsburgh's most recent victory in Philadelphia was on Oct. 24, 1965.

Dodgers expect Ohtani to be ready for Opening Day, but not on the mound

DALLAS (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers expect Shohei Ohtani to be ready to hit when the reigning World Series champions open their season in Japan against the Chicago Cubs on March 18 and 19.

"I don't think he'd have it any other way," manager Dave Roberts said Monday of the NL MVP who had left shoulder surgery last month. "That's our expectation."

Coming off his third MVP award, Ohtani is doubtful to pitch while recovering from right elbow surgery in September 2023. Roberts said a mound appearance for the two-way star in his home country is "very unlikely.'

"I just don't see us starting the clock in March to then think that we would keep that continuously going through October," Roberts said during the winter meetings. "Then that would call for a break or reprieve in the middle of the season, so I don't know. I still think unlikely.'

Ohtani had surgery Nov. 5 to repair a torn labrum in his non-throwing shoulder, an injury the 30-yearold sustained while sliding during a stolen base attempt in Game 2 of the World Series on Oct. 26. He didn't pitch at all during the first season of his $700 million, 10-year deal with the Dodgers while recovering from surgery on the elbow, which also previously underwent Tommy John surgery in October 2018.

A unanimous National League MVP after becoming the first player with at least 50 homers and 50 stolen bases in a season, Ohtani surely wants to be in the lineup in Japan.

"It's not cemented. If something doesn't look right, feel right, obviously we've got to pivot. Maybe a lot of disappointed fans," Roberts said. "We're going to do what's best for Shohei. But where we stand right now, I expect him to play."

Roberts doesn't believe the recent surgery on the left shoulder is going to have much of an impact on Ohtani

Holmes staying with Yanks

DALLAS (AP) — Pitcher Clay blown saves. Rediscovering his sink-Holmes and the New York Mets finalized a $38 million, three-year contract on Monday.

Holmes can earn $13 million for each of the first two seasons. He has a $12 million player option for 2027 with no buyout.

Holmes developed into a dominant closer with the New York Yankees after he was acquired from Pittsburgh in July 2021, becoming a two-time All-Star. But he struggled this year with control and allowing hits on soft contact. Holmes lost his closer's job to Luke Weaver after allowing a game-ending grand slam to Texas rookie Wyatt Langford on Sept. 3.

He was 3-5 with a 3.14 ERA and a career-high 30 saves in 67 appearances, leading the major leagues with 13 er, he became an effective setup man for the Yankees in the postseason, going 3-1 with a 2.25 ERA in 13 games.

Holmes' sinker averaged 96.6 mph this season and he threw it 56% of the time, along with 23% sliders and 21% sweepers. His 65.0% ground-ball rate was second to Tim Hill (68.2%) last season among pitchers with 50 or more innings.

Holmes had 74 saves in 95 chances with the Yankees over the last three years. He is 24-22 with a 3.71 ERA in seven major league seasons.

After reaching the NL Championship Series and losing to the eventual World Series champion Los Angeles Dodgers, the Mets added right-hander Frankie Montas with a $34 million, two-year contract.
