Gronowski leads Iowa rally past Penn State, 25-24

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Iowa quarterback Mark Gronowski rushed for a career-high 130 yards and two touchdowns, and Kaden Wetjen scored the go-ahead touchdown on an 8-yard run with 3:54 to play, as the Hawkeyes defeated Penn State 25-24 on Saturday night.

Gronowski had just nine carries, but had the biggest run of the game for the Hawkeyes.

"I'm a guy who wants the ball in my hands," said Gronowski, who transferred to Iowa in the offseason after winning two FCS national championships at South Dakota

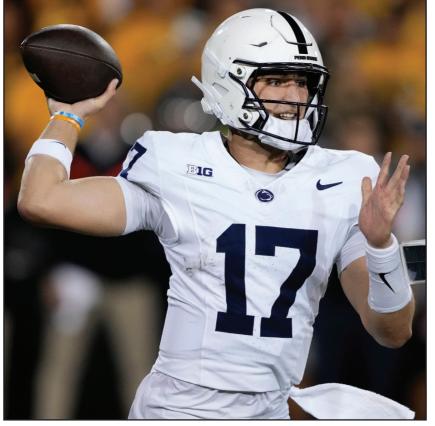

"I always joke, he's our biggest (running) back," Iowa coach Kirk Ferentz said. "It's been great to have him on our football team."

The Hawkeyes trailed 24-19 with 4:56 to play after Penn State's Ryan Barker kicked a 32-yard field goal, but Gronowski ran 67 yards on the first play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up Wetjen's run one play lat-

"I had to break one tackle, and once I picked my eyes up, and there was nobody there. I got pretty bugeyed there," Gronowski said.

Gronowski missed on the 2-point conversion pass after Wetjen's touchdown, giving the Nittany Lions a chance to take the lead.

Iowa's defense then stopped Penn State near midfield, blitzing Ethan

Penn State quarterback Ethan Grunkemeyer throws a pass during the first half of Saturday's game against lowa.

Grunkemeyer on fourth down at the Penn State 49 and forcing an incomplete pass. Gronowski then clinched the win with a 14-yard run on third down that allowed the Hawkeyes to run out the clock.

"We certainly had to earn this win," Ferentz said. "I told the players, this is a feeling you can't buy."

It was the second consecutive win for the Hawkeyes (5-2, 3-1 Big Ten) after the 20-15 loss to Indiana on September 27, a game in which Gronowski went out late in the second half with a knee injury. He hasn't missed a game after Iowa's off week following the Indiana loss, starting last week's 37-0 win over Wisconsin and then starting this game while wearing a brace on the knee.

"If I didn't have the knee brace, I could have unhooked the trailer and scored (on the 67-yard run)," Gronowski said, smiling.

"He said if he was 100%, he would have scored," Ferentz said. "That says a lot about him. To come back off that injury, he's not quite 100%, but he's looking better every Gronowski had a 1-yard touchdown run late in the first half, then added a 4-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that got the Hawkeyes to within 21-16.

It was the fourth consecutive loss for the Nittany Lions (3-4, 0-4), playing their first game for interim coach Terry Smith six days after the firing of James Franklin.

"I think we gave everything we had," Smith said. "There was no one that didn't give great effort. We just have to execute.'

"That's a talented team," Ferentz said. "They came in ready to go."

Kaytron Allen rushed for 145 yards and two touchdowns for Penn

The Nittany Lions led 14-10 at halftime after Iowa kicker Drew Stevens had his 66-yard field-goal attempt with six seconds left blocked by Xavier Gilliam. Elliot Washington II picked up the loose ball and ran 35 yards for the touchdown.

Takeaways

Penn State: The Nittany Lions had a road win in their possession before the Hawkeyes were able to snatch it away. Grunkemeyer struggled at times, throwing two interceptions, one to Xavier Nwankpa that he returned to the Penn State 1-yard line, setting up Gronowski's first touchdown. "I'm super proud of those guys and the way they played," Smith said. "We just have to clean it up so that we can finish games."

Iowa: The Hawkeyes brought in Gronowski because of his mobility, something he has shown all season, but particularly in this game. They have momentum now with this win combined with last week's win at Wisconsin. "These are memories we'll have for the rest of our lives," cornerback Deshaun Lee said.

Pitt dominates Syracuse for third straight win

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Quarterback Mason Heintschel ran for one score, Kenny Johnson returned a punt 66 yards for another, Trey Butkowski kicked three field goals and Pittsburgh beat Syracuse 30-13 on Saturday night.

Pitt (5-2, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) won its third straight with true freshman Heintschel, while the Orange (3-4, 1-3) dropped their third straight, all with LSU transfer Rickie Collins as the starter quarterback following a season-ending injury to Steve Angeli.

With the win, Pitt continued its dominance over the Orange. Pitt has won seven of eight and 20 of the last 24 games in the series that has been played since 1955.

Pitt and Syracuse struggled on offense, combining for 28 first downs and 472 yards. The teams combined for 25 penalties.

"Our kids weren't very excited after they came to the locker room. I had to get them going. I had to do a dance just to get them fired up because it's hard to win on the road," Pitt coach Pat Narduzzi said.

team "did not play as well as we needed to play."

"I think we sputtered. We didn't protect the quarterback at all ... We didn't get the run game going."

Heintschel was 13 of 24 for 143 yards passing with one pick and was sacked seven times. Ja'Kyrian Turner had 42 yards rushing for the Pan-

"We've got to clean that up," Narduzzi said of the pass protection. Collins was 16-of-32 passing for 126 yards and threw two touchdown passes but had three interceptions to go with a team-leading 37 yards on the ground. Johntay Cook had seven receptions for 66 yards for the Or-

Each team took advantage of quarterback miscues in the first half. Following an interception by Pitt cornerback Tamon Lynum, Heintschel ran the ball up the gut untouched for a 36-yard score for the first points of the game.

Late in the first quarter, Syracuse cornerback Davien Kerr picked off a Heintschel pass and returned it to the Pitt 12. Two plays later, Collins hit Darrell Gill Jr. But Narduzzi acknowledged his with an 11-yard touchdown strike tying the game at 7.

NHL STANDINGS

It was all Pitt after that.

Pitt delivered a knockout blow to close the half. Following a threeand-out, Johnson returned a Jack Stonehouse punt 66 yards to paydirt with just two seconds remaining, giving the Panthers a 17-7 lead at intermission.

"That was just really bad coaching (at the end of the first half)," Syracuse coach Fran Brown said. "I feel as though I should've run the ball" instead of passing three times.

Syracuse continued to struggle with Collins at quarterback. A drop by Pitt safety Javon McIntyre prevented a fourth pick. Freshman Luke Carney replaced Collins for two drives in the third quarter before Collins returned.

"I just wanted a spark," Brown said of his decision to pull Collins. "I just want to be straight when it comes to the quarterback decision, right? We're very young at quarterback. And we have to develop. That was one of the reasons we got Steve (Angeli) at the second portal because we knew we were young. He (Collins) literally took no reps for three years. I've just got to do a better job of developing him."

The Orange managed just 74 vards of offense and five first downs in the first 30 minutes with just 14 yards on the ground on 12 attempts against a Pitt defense that entered having allowed fewer yards per rush than any team in the country with 2.16 yards per carry. Syracuse finished with just 212 yards on 64 plays for an average of 3.31 yards per play.

The Orange also went three-andout six times.

The Takeaway

Pitt: The Panthers did just enough to win their third straight but didn't distinguish itself. The offense was stymied most of the night and struggled to protect Heintschel.

Syracuse: With a malfunctioning offense, the Orange are staring at their season spiraling out of control with three of their next four games on the road against ranked opponents, including a matchup next Saturday at 7-0 Georgia Tech.

Penguins shut out Sharks, 3-0

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin each had a goal and an assist, Tristan Jarry stopped 31 shots for his 22nd career shutout, and the Pittsburgh Penguins beat the San Jose Sharks 3-0 on Saturday night.

Anthony Mantha also scored for the Penguins, who improved to 4-2-0 on Alex Nedeljkovic made 24 saves for the Sharks, and San Jose outshot an opponent for the first time this season but was unable to score. The Sharks, an NHL-worst 20-50-12 last season, remained the league's only winless team at 0-3-2.

San Jose has now started four straight seasons winless through five games. Crosby opened the scoring 7:35 into the second period on a deflection off of a point shot by Kris Letang.

Mantha padded the Penguins' lead 7:02 into the second period, and Malkin capped the scoring on an empty-netter with 22 seconds remaining
