Larson wins second NASCAR championship

AVONDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Kyle Larson knew he wasn't going to catch Denny Hamlin in the final laps on Sunday, not without the sort of help that only a caution flag can bring.

Hamlin only got heartbreak.

Larson is now a two-time NASCAR champion after denying Hamlin what would have been his first career title when a late caution at Phoenix Raceway sent the championship-deciding finale into overtime.

Without that caution, which came with three laps to run, Hamlin had it locked up and was ready to finally shed the label of greatest NASCAR driver to never win a championship. But fellow title contender William Byron got a flat tire and hit the wall to bring out the caution, and a few minutes later, it was over.

"Just unbelievable," Larson said. "I cannot believe it."

Neither could Hamlin.

"I really don't have much for emotion right now. Just numb about it 'cause just in shock," Hamlin said after consoling his crying daughters on pit road. "We were 40 seconds away from a championship. This sport can drive you absolutely crazy because sometimes speed, talent, none of that matters."

When the caution for Byron came out, Hamlin led the field down pit road and got four new tires on his Toyota; Larson only took two tires on his Chevrolet. It meant Larson was fifth for the two-lap sprint to the finish, with Hamlin back in 10th.

Kyle Larson celebrates after winning the NASCAR Cup Series championship on Sunday in Avondale, Arizona.

With so little time to run down Larson, Hamlin came up short with a sixth-place finish as Larson finished third. Ryan Blaney, who was eliminated from title contention last week, won the race.

It is the second championship for Larson, who won his first title in 2021 when he joined Hendrick Motorsports.

As Larson celebrated, Hamlin sat in his car motionless for several seconds, then wiped his face with a white towel, never showing any emotion.

Larson, who has been in a slump since his disastrous Memorial Day attempt to race both the Indianapolis 500 and Coca-Cola 600 on the same day, was also in shock.

"We didn't lead a lap and won the championship," Larson said. "We had an average car at best and had the right front (tire) go down, lost a lap and got the wave around, saved by the caution with the wave around. It's just unbelievable. What a year by this motorsports team."

When Hamlin finally got out of his car he embraced his crew members but it was a scene of disbelief among the Joe Gibbs Racing crowd. Team members were crying, some sitting in shock on the pavement, Gibbs himself stood silent, one hand on his hip and a look of disbelief on his face.

It is the sixth shot at a title to slip away from Hamlin in his 20 years driving for Gibbs. He led 208 of the 319 laps and started from the pole.

"Nothing I could do different. I mean, prepared as good as I could coming into the weekend and my team gave me a fantastic car," Hamlin said. "Just didn't work out. I was just praying 'no caution' and we had one there. What can you do? It's just not meant to be."

He said crew chief Chris Gayle made the correct call with four tires, but too many others only took two, which created too big of a gap for Hamlin to close on Larson in so little time.

The 44-year-old Virginia native had been extremely jinxed in five previous championship finales, with bad luck, bad strategy and bad cars breaking his heart in 2010, 2014, 2019, 2020 and 2021. Sunday marked his first time eligible in the winner-take-all race in four seasons.

Steelers

Facing the league's worst pass defense, Indianapolis coach Shane Steichen opted to put the game in Jones' hands rather than running back Jonathan Taylor. Taylor, the NFL's leading rusher, was held to a season-low 45 yards on 14 carries and was an afterthought even during the first half, when he ran it just eight times while Jones attempted 20 passes with diminishing results.

Indianapolis remains atop the AFC South despite the stumble. Pittsburgh remains the only team in the AFC North with a winning record. Perhaps just as importantly, the Steelers saw a bit of their confidence return after their 4-1 start had started to look like a mirage.

Injuries

Steelers: Veteran guard Isaac Seumalo aggravated a pectoral injury in the second half and did not return. Seumalo initially sustained the injury in last Sunday's loss to Green Bay.

Up next

Colts: head to Berlin, Germany, next week for an international game against Atlanta.

Steelers: Travel to Los Angeles for a Sunday night matchup against the Chargers next week.

Despite strong effort from Ferguson, Golden Eagles fall

SLIPPERY ROCK — A fast start for Clarion dissipated as the game wore on, as the Golden Eagles fell by a 42-23 score to 22nd-ranked Slippery Rock at Mihalik-Thompson Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Golden Eagles led until late in the first half, but the Rock took the advantage with 51 seconds left in the second quarter and held it for the remainder.

The game started as a track meet between two potent offenses, with both sides scoring touchdowns on each of their first two possessions. Freshman quarterback Jase Ferguson orchestrated a pair of methodical drives that each spanned nine plays and more than 70 yards, while the Rock scored on an explosive 67-yard run by JayJay Jordan and a fake field goal rush from Cory Butts.

On the first possession, the pass game from the Golden Eagles carved up the Rock defense, with Ferguson finding Ray Jackson and Ja'Tawn Williams on back-to-back passes to enter the red zone. Ferguson hit Jackson on a slant on 3rd-and-5 from the 13-yard line to open the scoring. On Clarion's second offensive possession, Ferguson hit Davon Jones on a 30-yard pass play to get in close and then found Dominik Thomas in the end zone to make it 14-7.

As the game went on, though, the Slippery Rock defense began to seal up the cracks against the Clarion offense, holding the Golden Eagles in check and logging two key turnovers. The first came with the Golden Eagles on the precipice of the red zone late in the third quarter after having traveled from deep in their own end. Tyler Cain picked off Ferguson at the six-yard line to help preserve Slippery Rock's lead, though the Rock were also left without points after a missed field goal on the other end of the field.

The Golden Eagles pulled back to within a score after a 15-play, 80-yard touchdown drive midway through the fourth quarter. Running back Khalon Simmons did the damage on the ground on that drive, pushing the pile for a 12-yard run down to the two-yard line and then punching it in up the middle to make it 28-23. Clarion's onside kick attempt failed, giving the Rock good field position that eventually led to a touchdown pass from DaOne Owens to Latrell Sutton. The Rock added another score with a minute to play when Blake Nicholas picked off Ferguson at the Slippery Rock 47-yard line and took it back for a touchdown, sealing the win.

Ferguson finished 20-of-43 passing for 233 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions, and was also Clarion's leading rusher with 67 yards. Jackson was his most consistent target, catching eight passes for 92 yards and a score.
