7 p.m. — "A Wintry Mix" – A winter choral concert of the Venango Chorus and Oil City High School "Rhapsody in Blues" ensembles. Free admission; Good Hope Lutheran Church, 800 Moran St.

Concert by Venango Chorus rounds off event

After months of rehearsals the 55 singers of Venango Chorus will perform in formal attire Sunday at Good Hope Lutheran Church.

Venango Chorus will present "A Wintry Mix", a choral concert, on Sunday evening at 7 p.m. at Good Hope Lutheran Church, 800 Moran St., Oil City. The concert is free and open to the public.

Included in this performance are pieces of music both sacred and secular celebrating winter, Advent and Christmas.

The program will feature part of John Rutter's "Requiem."

Through music the concert will take the audience on a tour of Robert Frost's poem, "The Road Not Taken."

The meaning of Advent is expressed through the songs "O Come O Come Emmanuel" and "Keep Your Lamps."

"God Rest You Merry Gentlemen" and "Silent Night" emphasize the sacred aspect of Christmas, while "Carol of the Bells, among others, are more secular. The concert will celebrate the season with the "Hallelujah Chorus."

Joining Venango Chorus will be Oil City High School's "Rhapsody in Blues" choral ensemble. The ensemble will join the chorus in song and also perform pieces independently.

55 singers make up this semester's chorus.

The director is Beth Orris, the accompanist is Kristen Criado and the secretary is Joan McElhatten.

The Oil City High School choral director is Steve Luxbacher.

A reception will follow the concert and a free will donation will be accepted.

HERE'S WHAT'S HAPPENING...

Model Railway Exhibition

The Clarion Model Railroad Club and Cranberry Mall are presenting a Christmas train show at the mall through Sunday, Dec. 22.

The free event is situated in the former Bon-Ton and presents model railroad layouts in O, H0, N and G scales. There is a Lego train layout and a T-Trak modular layout. An O scale Disney train set will be raffled, there will be door prizes and a model railroad hobby shop will be open. Donations will be accepted.

For further information, people may call (814) 591-0286.

Christmas Past continues in Oil City

Christmas Past will continue in Oil City today, Saturday and Sunday

A key part of Christmas Past will be the 7th annual Jingle Bell Run on Saturday. The event will begin with a free children's race at 8:45 a.m. at the Town Square, with prizes for participation.

The main event is a 5K race, which will start at 9 a.m. on Seneca Street and proceed over Veterans Memorial Bridge, right onto Front Street and then along Front Street to just beyond the Oil City Marina. The runners will turn back at that point and return along the same route.

Portions of Seneca Street, Sycamore Street, Veteran's Memorial Bridge, and Front Street will be partially or fully closed to vehicles during the race. Motorists are requested to drive slowly while in the race vicinity.

The cost for participating is $25.

For more information, people may contact the Main Street office at 677-3152, Ext. 101.

Visitors welcome at Egbert-Mullins-Koos House

Vintage holiday decor is emphasized by the Venango County Historical Society as it prepares for the holiday season at the Egbert-Mullins-Koos House, 307 S. Park St., Franklin.

Activities will begin at 11:30 a.m. Saturday. There will be a luncheon at that time, for which reservations are required. People may call 432-8260 to make a reservation.

Visitors will be welcome at the house throughout the holiday season, during regular business hours or by arrangement.

Several mannequins are dressed for parties and feature clothing that was part of the Mullins-Koos collection. One of the dresses was worn by Elizabeth Mullins while her portrait was being painted. The dress and the painting are displayed together in the home.

Many children's toys are also featured. Ornaments made by the late Virginia Weltner, a long-time volunteer at the historical society, are displayed on one of the many Christmas trees that are spaced throughout the house.

The Venango County Historical Society will also participate in the Franklin Historic Preservation event the weekend before Christmas.

Used Toy Sale

There will be a sale of used toys Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Galloway United Methodist Church, 196 Seysler Road, Franklin. The church is located 2.5 miles past Valley Grove High School on Route 417.

In preparation for the event, clean and gently used toys are being collected at the church. The toys may be suitable for baby through teenage years.

Donations may be made today from noon to 8 p.m. The proceeds of the sale will benefit the Family Service and Children's Aid Society and the shelter for victims of domestic and sexual abuse.

For further information people may call (814) 720-9018 or Jeanne (814) 428-1737.

Santa Claus is coming

Santa Claus is coming to Clarion today. Santa will be escorted along Main Street by the Clarion Fire and Hose Company.

Santa will arrive in Memorial Park at approximately 5:30 p.m., and will be in the gazebo until 7 p.m. where people may visit and get pictures with him.

The Clarion County Commissioners will be on hand for the official lighting of the Memorial Park Christmas Tree at 5:45 p.m. Cookies and hot chocolate will be available.

Besides Santa in the Memorial Park gazebo, Trinity Point Church of God will once again present its Live Nativity from 6 to 8 p.m.

For further information people may call (814) 226-9161 or email tracy@clarionpa.com

Tionesta Lights Up

Tionesta Community Association will host a visit from Santa on Saturday during its Tionesta Lights Up festival.

The event will begin at 4 p.m. with chili at the Historical Society.

Santa will arrive at Market Village at 6 p.m. and walk to the social hall, where there will be hot chocolate, cookies, rip-off tickets, the drawing of raffle ticket winners, games and contests for the children.

WKQW radio station will be broadcasting from the Gazebo at the Market Village.

Emlenton train display

The 26th annual Emlenton train display at Donaldson Motors is set to begin Saturday. It will be open every weekend through January. Trains will run from 1 to 5 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday. Admission is free.

The core of the event is an HO scale display, built by Bruce Donaldson, that covers an area of more than 30 by 18 feet. Up to 13 trains run on the layout, which features over 200 train engines, cars, trucks and buildings.

The popular "Can you find?" list is returning, to challenge both the young and young at heart.

In addition to the main HO display there are also Lionel, American Flyer and Thomas train displays.

Donaldson also displays some of his oil can collection and local postcards and photo books.

Over 9,000 people, from 47 states, have signed the guest book.

Donaldson Motors is located at 714 River Ave. in Emlenton. For further information, or for groups to schedule a weekday viewing, people may call (724) 867-2293.

Cahal Dunne in Christmas concert

Titusville Presbyterian Church will present a free Christmas concert on Saturday, Dec. 7, at 7:30 p.m. The doors will open at 7 p.m. The church is located at 216 N. Franklin St., Titusville. A free-will offering will be collected.

Information about the concert may be obtained by calling (814) 657-5012.

Cahal Dunne is known as "Ireland's Happy Man." He is a composer, concert pianist, story teller, comedian and television personality. He is the nephew of the former Prime Minister of Ireland, Jack Lynch. Dunne has played over 75 concerts in the local area.

A dinner prior to the event will be offered and information about the dinner may be obtained by calling (814) 827-3665.

Christmas Cantata

Christ United Methodist Church of Franklin and friends are to host the Christmas cantata "Song of Joy," by Dale Mathews and Marty Hamby, this weekend. The musical will combine the gifts of many into a 60-voice choir, with orchestra and narrators.

The event is open to all. There will be sign interpretation for the hearing-impaired, and the event is wheel-chair accessible. The performances will take place at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 and 7 p.m. Sunday.

Christ United Methodist Church is located at 1135 Buffalo St. in Franklin. Refreshments in the church fellowship hall will follow each presentation.

There is no charge to attend. However, tickets will be required in order to assure available seating to all. A free-will offering will be received at the conclusion of each event.

For further information people may visit www.christchurchfranklin.com, Facebook/Christ United Methodist Church Franklin; or call the Christ Church office at 432-3019, Ext. 308, to reserve tickets.

'Sounds of the Season'

The Schubert Musical and Literary Club will present its annual Christmas concert, "Sounds of the Season," on Sunday. The concert will be held at Grace United Methodist Church, located at 100 Central Ave., Oil City, and will begin at 3 p.m.

Admission is open to the public and free. Refreshments will follow the performance. The performers will include organists Nancy Davis, Joseph Emanuele, Janice Grunenwald, and Steve Winslow. Winslow and Jenny Millken will perform a piano duet. Deborah Stahl will perform a French Horn solo.

Oil City High School Rhapsody in Blues chorus will perform a variety of Christmas-themed musical pieces.

Venango Chorus

The Venango Chorus will present a concert titled "Wintery Mix" at 7 p.m. on Sunday at Good Hope Lutheran Church, 800 Moran St., Oil City.

The concert is free and open to the public. Included in this concert are pieces of music celebrating winter, Advent, and both the sacred and secular aspects of Christmas. Oil City High School's Rhapsody in Blues ensemble will be joining the chorus in song and will also perform independent pieces.

Christmas musical

The junior choir of Grace E.C. Church, 2561 Grace Church Road in Nineveh, Knox, will present a Christmas Musical titled "Good News Ahead...The Signs of Christmas!" on Sunday at 6 p.m.

Mr. T is the tour guide who takes his group of students through the various parts of a living nativity...following the signs of Christmas along the way.

"Good News Ahead... The Signs of Christmas!" created by Gina Boe and Barb Dorn, brings Old Testament prophecies and the Christmas story to life through scripture-based songs.

At the first stop of the student's journey, Mr. T reveals the sign from Micah 5:2, showing the students that they first must travel to Bethlehem, the birthplace of Jesus, as the prophet Micah foretold.

HERE'S WHAT'S HAPPENING...

Upon arriving, the students see the "No Vacancy" sign; another sign of Christmas, reminding them that there was no room for Mary and Joseph in the inn. The next sign is Jesus' birth.

As the tour wraps up, one of the last signs is revealed by rejoicing angels, proclaiming the good news to shepherds nearby...the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, has been born!

Light refreshments will be served following the musical performance in the multi purpose building.

Pittsburgh Symphony Brass

As the 2019 season comes to a close, Allegheny RiverStone Center for the Arts is offering "evergreen" holiday presentations. Tickets may be purchased online at www.alleghenyriverstone.org or reserved by calling (724) 659-3153.

Foxburg's Memorial Church of Our Father will be the exquisite setting for the 10th annual performance of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra Brass on Sunday at 7 p.m.

The intimate atmosphere and superb acoustics of this stone church will be the setting for traditional Christmas favorites performed by some of the most celebrated brass musicians in the world. There is limited seating and the evening has always been sold out in previous years.

The cost of tickets is $30 for the public, $25 for ARCA members and $5 for students. Concertgoers are requested to park at the AC Valley Medical Center, opposite the AC Valley Schools, up the hill from the church, one-half mile, on route 58. A shuttle service to the church will begin at 6 p.m., an hour before the performance.

Leeper hosts Light Up Night

The Leeper Flower Pad will host its annual Light Up Night starting at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday at the intersection of State Routes 36 and 66 in Leeper.

To begin the night there will be a blessing of the tree, followed by the lighting of the tree and Christmas carols. Fireworks will follow. The celebration will then move into the Farmington Township fire hall for a meeting with Santa and refreshments for all.

Handbell concert

The annual holiday handbell concert will be held at 7 p.m. Monday at Tower Presbyterian Church, 248 S. Broad St., Grove City.

The concert will feature a community handbell choir, known as the Celebration Ringers; the Grove City College Choir, known as the Revelation Ringers; the Glenn Memorial Ringers of Tower Church; and it will also present nationally acclaimed handbell soloist Sue Garton. There will be a variety of Christmas tunes, both secular and sacred, in the program, with a variety of vocal soloists and various instrumentalists.

Admission will be free, but a goodwill offering will be collected to help meet expenses for music and bell repair.

Environmental talk and potluck

The public is invited to the annual potluck dinner of the Bartramian Audubon Society on Monday at 7 p.m.

Julie Aiken, a primary school teacher, will share stories about her summer experience of the 2019 Audubon ornithology camp on Hog Island, Maine. Her talk is titled "Sharing Nature: An Educator's Week." Her participation in this educational camp was sponsored by the society. People may take a potluck dish to share.

The event will take place at Jennings Environmental Education Center on Route 528, just west of Route 8 and approximately 5 miles south of Slippery Rock. There is a free, lighted parking lot.

Victorian concert

The First Baptist Church of Franklin will present its annual Christmas Concert on Saturday, Dec. 14. The concert will have a Victorian theme and will present a variety of musical talents, featuring vocalists Kevin Downey, Brianna Erdman, Tyler Carson, Kayleen Dunkle and Joyful Noise.

Dennis Geib and Nelson Porter will appear as special guests.

The doors will open at 6 p.m. and the concert will start at 7 p.m. Admission will be free, but donations will be accepted. The event will benefit Mustard Seed Missions of Venango County.

David Wickerham

The Allegheny Riverstone Center for the Arts will present the artistry and improvisational flair of audience favorite Dave Wickerham in his celebrated Christmas concert to be performed Sunday, Dec. 15, at 2 p.m. in Foxburg's Lincoln Hall.

Wickerham will play the McKissick Mighty Wurlitzer theatre organ, presenting his own arrangements and also improvising to accommodate audience requests. Wickerham is a world-class organist.

The cost of tickets is $25 for adults, $20 for ARCA members and $5 for students. Tickets may be purchased online at www.alleghenyriverstone.org or reserved by calling (724) 659-3153.

Holiday tour of homes

Eight homes in Franklin, selected for beauty and interest, will be on display from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 21, and from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 22. A shuttle bus will be available both days.

The cost is $15 for tickets bought in advance and $18 on the day of the event. Tickets may be purchased from the Franklin Area Chamber of Commerce, The Olive Vault and online from Eventbrite. There is limited number of tickets and if pre-sales meet that number, no tickets will be sold on the day.

Transit Concert Series continues Dec. 13 with Gravel Lick

Gravel Lick is composed of Colette Vickers, playing upright bass, Cheryl Renner, on guitar, Nancy Jeannerat on mandolin and Barbi Milliron on fiddle.

The Transit Concert Series, presented by the Oil City Arts Council, will continue Friday, Dec. 13 with the appearance of Gravel Lick bluegrass band in the Great Room of the National Transit Building.

The band will perform from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The cost of admission, payable at the door, is $8 for Arts Council members and $10 for others. Light refreshments will be available.

The band is composed of four members. Colette Vickers has been playing upright bass and bass guitar for the past 5 years at the Trinity Point Church of God and with Gravel Lick. She began playing guitar in 2011 and quickly developed an ear for the bass line. The bass guitar seemed a natural fit when a spot opened up on the church praise and worship team.

Barbi Milliron began her fiddling career at the age of 10. She has been placed in numerous fiddle competitions in western Pennsylvania. Milliron holds a degree in music therapy from Slippery Rock University and obtained her teaching certificate from Clarion University. She teaches elementary music at Keystone Elementary School and plays in worship at Trinity Point Church of God.

Cheryl Renner was born into a musical family in southern Illinois, raised on big band, country and gospel music and learned to play guitar at the age of 13. She has been a member of several different bands around Butler and surrounding areas before joining Gravel Lick.

Nancy Jeannerat performs on mandolin and supplies vocals. She was musically educated by her musical family. She has been playing guitar and singing since age 14, primarily in church and at hymn sings. She occasionally played upright bass for United Natural Grass, a group her brothers formed in the 1970's. She came to love bluegrass music and harmonizing with siblings in the Keister Family Band.

Gravel Lick will perform from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 13, in the Great Room of the National Transit Building in Seneca Street, Oil City.

Clarion choir to present concert

Clarion Community Choir is to present its annual holiday choral concert on Sunday, Dec. 15 at First United Methodist Church in Clarion. The concert is titled "A Silent Night Heard Round the World."

Under the direction of Zachary Covington and Paulette Colantonio, the choir will present both sacred and secular choral works celebrating the holiday which means so much to so many.

The choir is accompanied by Mary Brooks, and will include additional string accompaniment.

The program includes Christmas music composed and arranged to encourage the singers and listeners to form a connection with the holiday season.

Selections will be performed by composers John Rutter, Kim Andre Arnesen, Craig Courtney, Pinkzebra, Eric Whitacre, Victor Johnson, and many more.

Attendees will also enjoy an organ recital performance by Ms. Kathy Sacco, Associate Director of Music and Organist at the Immaculate Conception Church in Fulda Ohio.

The concert begins at 7 p.m. It is free and open to the public. A free-will offering will be collected following the performance.

The Clarion Community Choir was founded in 1975, and has charmed audiences all over the world. Singers include volunteers from Clarion and the surrounding areas. The choir meets weekly at the Clarion First United Methodist Church, and regularly accepts new members.

For additional information on the choir, rehearsal times, or to join the group, people may contact Zachary Covington, Director at clarioncommunitychoir@gmail.com.

Clarion First United Methodist Church is located at 600 Wood St., Clarion.

Tour of Homes in Franklin

Eight homes in Franklin, selected for beauty and interest, will be on display during the Christmas season. Franklin Preservation is offering the event from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Dec. 21, and from noon to 4 p.m. on Dec. 22. A shuttle bus will be available both days.

The cost is $15 for tickets bought in advance and $18 on the day of the event. Tickets may be purchased from the Franklin Area Chamber of Commerce, The Olive Vault and online from Eventbrite. There is limited number of tickets and if pre-sales meet that number, no tickets will be sold on the day.

The tour begins at Peddlers and Paddlers Inn on Elk Street, where participants must exchange their ticket for a brochure and wristband, allowing entrance to the houses. Franklin's Historic District contains more than 200 significant buildings that represent over 20 different styles of architecture. Some of the beautiful and historic homes on the tour will be the Koos House, the Heydrick House, the Grant/Joy House, the Dale/Karns House, the Heathcote House, the Beatty House and the Cox House, representing Italianate, Colonial Revival and Arts and Crafts styles.
