Caledonia-Mumford wrestling coach Paul 'Chip' Day is going out on a high note. In what is his final season at the helm, Day and the Raiders captured the LCAA team championship this past weekend, with Day also being named the league's Coach of the Year. It was the first time Cal-Mum had been crowned LCAA champions since 2001, and the second time in three years that Day had been named Coach of the Year. Overall, the team is 14-2 on the season and poised to keep winning as it enters the stretch run and the postseason.
