Perry girls volleyball head coach Karin Rice has the Yellowjackets buzzing. Perry has raced out to a 10-1 record with the lone loss coming to an 8-1 York team. The Yellowjackets solidified themselves as one of the best small school teams in Section V this season with a four-set win Tuesday over previously unbeaten Le Roy. Rice has made this year's Perry team one to watch in the first 11 games, and certainly one to watch the rest of the season.
