Dear Santa,
I want to get some presents because I have been really good! I want a toy airplane and a toy car too. I want some lights for decorations and that is all! Oh, and a toy ipad too. Thank you, Santa. See you soon!
Love, Luka S.

Dear Santa,
How are all the reindeer doing? I would like a chalkboard, some slime, paint, and some new shoes. I also want some baby clothes for my new sister and light up necklaces for me and Naomi. Merry Christmas!
Love, Maya P.

Hello Santa!
Are the reindeer getting ready to fly? Are the toys almost finished? For Christmas, I want an underwater scooter and some magical dust that makes me turn into a reindeer and then turns me back into a kid. That is all I can think of. Bring good stuff for my brother too.
Love, River W.

The magical town of Whoville is one with which we are all familiar, and not many places on earth resemble it as closely as Haywood County at Christmas time. The people in this area, just like the Whos, are giving, caring, and welcoming to all, friends and strangers alike. Christmases here have traditionally been filled with laughter, love, and fellowship.

The last year, however, has been trying in many ways, for many people. And it is easy, during trying times, to become less trusting, less giving, less loving, and more suspicious, more stingy, more selfish. In other words, less like the Whos, and more like the Grinch.

We have all heard the story of the Grinch. A seemingly sour and cantakerous character, he was believed to be a villian with one goal in mind-to steal

Christmas. Or more specifically, to steal the JOY of Christmas. But the Grinch wasn't really a villian, just a lonely and unhappy soul, who was in dire need of kindness, understanding, and friendship.

As you go about your merry way this season, you are bound to run into a "Grinch" or two. Instead of seeing them as villains, out to steal your joy, realize that they are probably just in need of some kindness, understanding, and friendship as well. The moral of Dr Seuss's story remains just as important to us today, as it was to the Grinch long ago. The spirit of Christmas lies not in the presents, boxes, and bows. It is illustrated by an entire town joining hands, to share the joy that results from just being together. This year, let's all make a concious effort to truly promote "Peace on Earth", and "Good will towards all".

Clyde Elementary School
Ms. Huston and Mrs. Ramsey's 1st grade Class

Ms. Huston and Mrs. Ramsey's class has been getting everything ready for the big man to come to town! We've been working hard to stay on the nice list this year by helping our friends and spreading kindness around the school and at home. Our 1st grade class is full of kiddos who have the biggest hearts imaginable. Each kiddo has taken their time coming up with the best Christmas wish list. We can't wait for Santa!

- Addie would like a reindeer, a Lamborghini toy car, and headphones. Allison wants every person to happy for Christmas.
- Connor wants Nintendo with a Mario game, also a tablet.
- Harlyn hopes that her family gets presents and that people less fortunate get to have presents.
- Harlen wants a wind-up toy and a squishy squid this year.
- Hudson wants a Nintendo Switch.
- Jackson wants a drone and dirt bike.
- Kinzleigh wants My Little Ponies and Jurassic Park movies.
- Mason hopes that Santa will be able to help people who aren't able to get presents for Christmas and a new dirt bike.
- Olivia wants a barbie purse for Christmas.
- Parker wants a drone for Christmas and wants Santa to bring things that kids need that cannot get them for themselves.
- Pheonix wants a pony for Christmas.
- Quinn wants Santa to give toys to kids that don't have homes.
- Teddy wants a go kart. Winston wants a drone, a bike, and a toy car.

MERRY CHRISTMAS SANTA! — Students in Ms. Huston and Mrs. Ramsey's first grade class at Clyde Elementary School are eagerly awaiting the arrival of Santa. Here, they are proudly displaying letters they wrote to Santa during class, an excellent learning opportunity on proper letter-writing style, a dying art in today's world of texting! Pictured are Olivia and Harlyn M. (front row); Connor, Harlen C., Teddy, Quinn and Hudson (second row); Winston, Parker, Mason and Jackson (third row); Allison, Kinzleigh, Pheonix and Addie (back row).

Dear Santa Claus,
This Christmas I don't want a PlayStation, bicycle, or a pony. I want the end to homelessness which effects 2 percent of the world population, which is about 154 million people. These people should not have to sleep in the cold. Thank you for hearing my request.
Your friend, Obe (10th grade)

Dear Santa,
What I want for Christmas is world peace and the end of world hunger. I also want for all the animals in the shelters to have a great home and a loving family. And for all the people who keep us safe to go home to their families to enjoy their Christmas.
Love, Carolina (12th grade)

Dear Santa Claus,
I wish to end world hunger and for world peace. I also want for all the soldiers in the military to spend Christmas with their families.
Love, Alejandro (6th grade)
