Our Home is Haywood County

Thank you for your support,

We are so very honored for the last eight years to be named your favorite restaurant for Seafood in the Best of Haywood. My staff along with myself are very blessed to call Haywood County our home. The last few years have been beyond stressful. As we are now working through the staffing issues we will remain committed to serving each of you simply the best meal along with great service from our amazing service team, who truly care about our guests. We thank the Lord to be blessed to live in this beautiful mountain town and for our amazing customers that we truly consider part of our Galley family and keep us successful. We will work hard to continue to be the best we can be. We thank each of you for your support.

Warmly, The entire Maggie's Galley Team
