SP Vote on Project Delayed

Even after seven hours of presentations and public comment on a pro-apartment complex, Southern Pines Town Council members have not heard the last word on the Patrick's Pointe projet.
The 276-unit apartment complex and office building development proposed for a parcel off U.S. 1 will get even more comment and scrutiny after the council decided to hold open the topic for its January meeting. It was after 1 a.m. Wednesday when folks walked out of the meeting, an-inning they'd have to wait another month for a decision.

Mary Carol Blaney described the prolonged discussion as a "trial by fire" for the two newly elected members, Tyler Clement and Jan Peterson, who were elected in November for four-year terms.

Developer Logan Barnett of 1700 LLC presented his vision for the 25.4-acre wooded property located on U.S. 1, five blocks from Broad Street.
