CONSTITUTION DAY IS SEPT. 17, 2018

U.S. Constitution Protects Free Speech

"Congress shall make no law ... abridging the freedom of speech"

This year, Kid Scoop celebrates Constitution Day with a look at the reasons why freedom of speech is one of the freedoms the Founding Fathers protected in the First Amendment to the Constitution.

Jason has written a letter, on the right, to the editor of his newspaper, but something is wrong. The words are out of order. Can you put them back into the right order? Rewrite his letter on another sheet of paper.

Standards Link: Revision: Revise drafts to improve logical progression of ideas.

Ask your school librarian to set up a display of books on free speech and the free press. Use the space here to design a poster. Make a larger version of it to display in your school library!

Kyle is about to give an important speech at his school. But he got so nervous, he dropped some pages. Can you find all 12 pages of his speech on today's Kid Scoop page?

Dear Editor, Scoop! Thank you your paper. I like to read Kid for putting it in

Sincerely, Jason

Lively Discussions

The topic of free speech always sparks a lively discussion. Some say there should be limits on free speech. Others say people should be allowed to express whatever they want, even if it hurts or offends someone else.

What do YOU think?

Should students be allowed to wear to school t-shirts that say rude things?

Write a sentence in favor of allowing any kind of t-shirt in one of the speech bubbles at left. Then write why it shouldn't be allowed in the other bubble.

Standards Link: Civics: Understand freedoms guaranteed under the Bill of Rights.

What is Free Speech?

Imagine being put into jail for 26 years because you criticized your government. That happened to Nelson Mandela when he criticized his country's government for its policy of apartheid (separating black and white people).

When the colonies were under British rule in the 1700s, a man by the name of John Peter Zenger was brought to trial for criticizing a newspaper that criticized the British government.

The leaders that started the United States of America created the Constitution to protect people from these kinds of government. With the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, they established the freedom of both speech and press, as well as three other freedoms.

Constructive Criticism

Look through today's newspaper to find a critical article or editorial. What or who is being criticized? Do you agree with the criticism? Why or why not? What purpose would printing such a piece serve?
