APD Investigating Fatality Crash Involving Pedestrian

The Arlington Police Department is investigating a crash that took place in the 700 block of West Abram Street on Wednesday, November 16, 2016 around 5 p.m. A vehicle was turning southbound onto North Cooper Street from Abram Street and collided with a pedestrian in the roadway.

Investigators believe the female pedestrian was attempting to cross Cooper Street when she was struck. The 27-year old female was transported to a local hospital where she was later pronounced deceased.

The investigation is ongoing and detectives will continue to look into the cause of the crash. No charges are expected against the driver of the vehicle at this time.

The deceased will be identified by the Tarrant County Medical Examiner's Office once the next of kin have been notified.
