Two arrested for anti-Semitic threats in Côte St. Luc

By Joel Goldenberg
The Suburban

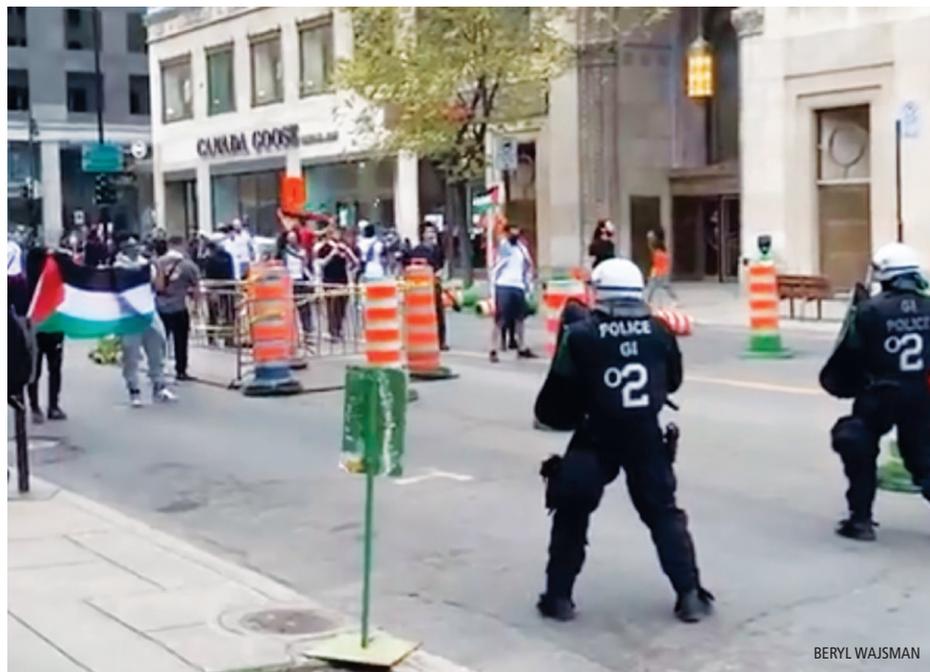

Two men aged 19 and 20 were arrested in Côte St. Luc by the SPVM about 6:30 p.m. Monday for uttering threats to members of the Jewish community, SPVM spokesman Jean-Pierre Brabant told The Suburban. The incident took place in the area of Kildare and Westminster.

These arrests follow Sunday's attacks by numerous pro-Palestinian protestors on participants in a pro-Israel rally, and a pro-Palestinian protest Saturday that included anti-Semitic signage and the breaking of a glass wall at Westmount Square where the Israeli consulate is located.

Brabant told The Suburban police were called after two men were seen driving around Kildare and Westminster making threats to people in the area. "We have many officers patrolling the area, so with the information we got, we were able to arrest the two men, ages 19 and 20, linked to the threats...made toward Jewish people. We're investigating [whether the two committed a hate crime]. The two were transported to a detention centre, and they will be met by investigators."

Palestinian protestors violently attack Montreal's Israel Solidarity Rally

By Beryl Wajzman, Editor with files from Chelsey St-Pierre
The Suburban

Over a thousand Montrealers gathered at Dorchester Square on Sunday in a grassroots Israel Solidarity Rally to demonstrate support for the Middle East's only democracy now being pummelled over the past week by the some 3,200 Hamas rockets fired from Gaza. Those in attendance represented many communities in addition to the Jewish community. Representatives of the Greek, Italian and Afro-Canadian communities were prominent. The ninety minute gathering started out as a joyous affair with much dancing and songs of peace. The Rally had been sanctioned by the City with full police cooperation and protection. That protection turned out to be very much needed.

On the south side of Dorchester Square at Place du Canada several hundred pro-Palestinian protestors had gathered. They immediately commenced shouting anti-Israel, anti-Semitic and Islamist slogans. The Israel Rally participants moved further north in Dorchester Square and continued with speeches and more celebration in song and dance.

By Joel Goldenberg

Quebec is ending the curfew in Montreal and other red zones starting May 28, and by the end of August, if 75 percent of Quebecers 12 and over get two vaccination doses, they will be able to go most everywhere without masks, Premier François Legault announced Tuesday afternoon.

Restaurant terrasses will also reopen May 28.

"All generations are fulfilling their duty to get vaccinated," Legault said. "Thanks to your efforts, we can now announce this reopening plan."

The Premier said the province has revised its goal of 75 percent of adults vaccinated from June 24 to June 15, because of the response to the campaign.

As well, the goal is for most Quebec regions to switch from red to orange zones by May 31, meaning restaurants can open for indoor dining; then yellow by June 14, and green on June 28. By the latter date, 10 people from three residences will be
