

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN VISITING ITALY?

The Greater Mystic Chamber of Commerce is offering an exciting travel package called "Tuscany/One-Hotel Holiday." The trip is guaranteed to provide its travelers with an easy, relaxing, and convenient way to explore Italy.

The trip starts on September 22, 2026. Travelers will stay for seven nights in Montecatini. It is planned in such a way that everything is done for you. Rather than changing hotels, travelers will stay in one place for seven nights in Montecatini, and take day trips to some of Italy's most famous locations.

The trip begins with a night flight to Italy. After your arrival, you will be welcomed by a tour manager and check in at the hotel to have a welcome dinner. In the coming days, you will have a mix of guided tours as well as time on your own for exploring. On day three, you will tour the city of Florence where you will see outstanding architecture and monuments along with shopping. You will then travel to Pisa and the nearby town of Lucca, where you'll see the famous Leaning Tower.

A little into your trip, will be spent in Siena, a place renowned for its piazza and historical background. There's one day free for leisure, but you may also opt to join the optional tour to Cinque Terre, which consists of five lands located by the coast that offer never seen before sights/scenery. Towards the end of your vacation, you will be visiting San Gimignano, and you will be traveling through the Chianti region, enjoying Italian wine during your winery stop.

The itinerary also includes relaxation time for independent sightseeing in Montecatini, rest, or to treat yourself to a spa day. During the last evening of your vacation, you will have a farewell dinner celebration before departing back home the following morning.

Not ready to go home yet? There is an optional Rome extension stay. Rather than going back home, you will spend three more days in Rome, where you will be taken on tours to famous sites such as the Colosseum, Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain, Pantheon, and Piazza Venezia. You will also have the chance to roam around the city on your own.

The cost of the main trip per person will be $3,799 if you register before May 15, 2026. The package includes round trip flights, fuel surcharges, taxes, 7 nights accommodation at a first class hotel, 10 meals, sightseeing and entry to attractions per itinerary, and tour guide services, baggage handling, and hotel transfers.

Space is limited, so it's important to sign up early. For more information or to reserve a spot, contact The Greater Mystic Chamber of Commerce at Info@mysticchamber.org or call (860) 572-9578.

Overall, this vacation provides you with the opportunity of exploring Italy and enjoying a special and memorable experience without having the burden of organizing everything on your own. This could be a once in a lifetime chance that you do not want to miss!

SECOR VOLVO STORY:

For nearly five decades, Charlie Secor has been a trusted name in the automotive industry, building a legacy rooted in quality, safety, and community commitment. His journey began in 1976 with Saab, where he first developed his passion for Swedish engineering and customer-focused service. That foundation continues today at Secor Volvo Cars, a family-owned and operated dealership that has proudly served the New London community for over 30 years.

Secor Volvo Cars has grown into more than just a dealership—it is a full-service automotive destination. Offering sales, service, parts, and a multi-brand certified collision center, the business provides a seamless, one-stop experience for customers. This comprehensive approach reflects the team's dedication to convenience, efficiency, and long-term customer relationships.

At the heart of the dealership is the Volvo lineup, widely recognized as one of the safest on the road. Known for its premium Scandinavian design, innovative technology, and industry-leading safety features, Volvo continues to set the standard for modern driving. Secor Volvo Cars proudly represents these values, ensuring every customer drives away with confidence and peace of mind.

Beyond the showroom, the Secor family has remained deeply committed to giving back. Through involvement in local charities and community initiatives, the dealership has established itself as a pillar of support throughout the region.

Driven by a dedicated team and decades of experience, Secor Volvo Cars continues to honor its roots while looking ahead to the future—delivering exceptional vehicles, trusted service, and a lasting commitment to the community it calls home.

Crop
(860) 415-9666
27 Coogan Blvd Building 10,
Mystic, CT 06355
www.cropct.com

Crop is a boutique hair salon in the heart of Mystic, Connecticut, where artistry meets atmosphere. Nestled in the historic Olde Mistick Village, we're surrounded by charming local shops, cozy pubs, and historic locations, all within a Colonial-style setting that feels like stepping into another time (with modern perks, of course).

Crop started as a dream between two friends, Shannon Hanrahan and Lisa Van Kruiningen, who shared a passion for hair-styling and a vision for creating a space that felt as welcoming as it was inspiring. In 2015, they took the leap and opened their own salon in the heart of Downtown Mystic, just a stone's throw from the iconic Mystic Drawbridge.

What began as a simple idea, to build a salon where creativity thrived and clients felt at home, quickly grew into something even more special. Over the years, Crop has flourished, evolving into a community filled with talented stylists and incredible clients who make every day rewarding.

In 2022, their ever expanding team led them to a larger space in the Olde Mistick Village. Their stylists continue to bring fresh energy, innovative techniques, and, most importantly, a whole lot of heart to every appointment. Whether you've come for a bold transformation, a touch-up, or just good vibes, Crop is more than a salon—it's a place where style meets soul.

Designed with repurposed wood from local barns, Crop embraces South Eastern Connecticut's timeless charm and craftsmanship. Every beam and panel carries a story, echoing the warmth and resilience that define this small coastal corner of the Northeast. The result is a space that blends rustic authenticity with modern style, welcoming you into an experience that feels both fresh and familiar.

Many people today live with chronic symptoms—fatigue, digestive issues, or hormonal imbalance—and find themselves stuck managing the effects rather than addressing the cause. They often feel unheard or unsure of what's actually happening inside their bodies. I'm Tammy Santoro, an Ayurvedic Practitioner and founder of Enliven Inner Intelligence. I act as a guide to those ready to move beyond symptom suppression. Through Ayurvedic diagnostics and personalized therapies, I help clients identify the root imbalances—whether in digestion, detoxification, the nervous system, or lifestyle patterns. My approach is integrative, blending ancient Ayurvedic science with modern healing modalities. Instead of offering temporary relief, I guide my clients back toward balance so their bodies can reawaken their innate healing processes. My goal is to empower each person to become the hero of their own health story. When we understand the body's signals and support its inner intelligence, genuine healing is not only possible—it's the natural outcome.

The SVIA was formed in 1899 by a small group of caring residents wishing to maintain the Borough as "a nice place to live and work." Contributions by residents and non-residents alike allow the present-day SVIA to maintain that tradition. Activities and signature programs include maintaining duBois Beach and the East Lawn at Stonington Point and Mathews Park; running a year-round weekly Farmers Market; maintaining the James Merrill House through the efforts of the James Merrill House Committee (who fundraises independently for programs, conservation, building maintenance, and a renown "Writer-in-Residence program"); and hosting the annual Holiday Stroll and the 4th of July Ice Cream Social. The SVIA initiates special projects around the Borough such installation of four Little Free Libraries, over twenty public benches/tables, a bocce court in Mathews Park, a large Norway spruce tree in Wadawanuck Square, and landscaping at Wayland's Wharf and the playground.

The SVIA collaborates with other local non-profits, the Borough, and the Town on a variety of other projects including the renovation of Cannon Square, funding for new playground and exercise equipment, installation of a public water-bottle filler, support for the La Grua Summer Concerts on the Green, and restoration of the COMO pond, to name a few.

Stonington Consign to Design

STONINGTON CONSIGN TO DESIGN

Tucked into the charm of Stonington Borough, Stonington Consign to Design has been a destination for distinctive interiors since its founding in 2014. The shop specializes in upscale home furnishings on consignment, with a carefully curated mix that celebrates craftsmanship, character, and individuality. Rather than following trends, the focus is on the unusual—pieces that tell a story and bring a sense of authenticity to a home.

Owner Trish Watson says the most rewarding moments come when new homeowners walk through the door after purchasing a period or historic property. "My day is made when someone wants their home to feel true to its roots," she explains. Many arrive with traditional or transitional furnishings and a desire to learn how to thoughtfully integrate them into an older space.

Watson's approach is both practical and creative. She encourages clients to begin with a statement piece—an antique table, a distinctive mirror, or a one-of-a-kind accent—that anchors the room and sets the tone. From there, existing furnishings can be layered in, blending old and new in a way that feels intentional rather than forced. "It's about complementing what you already have," she says, "and letting each piece contribute to the story of the home."

Located at 132 Water Street, Stonington Consign to Design is open Thursday through Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., welcoming visitors to explore a thoughtfully edited collection where every piece has a past—and a place in someone's future.
