

ATHENA Award Chairperson Gerri Cunningham with 2022 recipient Julie Holland.

Julie Holland to be Honored with the ATHENA Award

Julie is a community service advocate who works for the Stonington Human Services Department and helps provide critical support services to community members in need. She is very passionate about treating people with dignity and respect.

Julie gets involved in town projects that she thinks will greatly benefit the community such as the Mystic River Boathouse Park or conversion of West Broad Street School to St Michaels School. She will work behind the scenes talking to neighbors and friends to promote projects that she is passionate about.

Julie Chairs the Town of Stonington Beautification Committee. She raises funds for flowers, runs meetings, organizes community clean-ups/weeding events, daily waters the flowers on the bridge in downtown, etc. Her care for the aesthetics of the two communities is unmatched.

She has volunteered a great deal with the Terri Brodeur Breast Cancer Foundation, Autism Awareness, American Heart Association and supported many other non-profit groups with her time, donations and social media promotions. She has helped other women succeed in their leadership roles by providing support of various types to these organizations.

Please join us on November 30 at Lake of Isles Golf Club as we pay tribute to this special lady. Tickets are $60 and may be reserved at 401-596-7761 or via email info@oceanchamber.org. Thousands of dollars in scholarships will also be awarded to local youth at this event.

JOHN LAYTON TAKES THE REINS AS CHAMBER CHAIRMAN!

This past June, the Ocean Community Chamber of Commerce and its membership were pleased to appoint the newest Chairman of the Board, John Layton. John is in his 17th year at Sun Media and has been General Manager for the past two. He has served on the Chamber's Board since 2014. In 2020, he joined the Chamber's Executive Board as Secretary and was immediately tasked with helping spearhead the COVID-19 relief efforts for local businesses. John's leadership was instrumental during this time of so much uncertainty. Throughout his tenure with the Chamber, John has volunteered at events such as Sunday Funday, Holiday Stroll, Pawcatuck River Duck Race, Virtu Art Show, FUSION and the Stonington Lobster Trap Tree. He also serves on the finance committee, Athena Award committee, and Board of Directors of the Ocean Community Chamber Foundation.

"I am excited to continue to help The Chamber support the local businesses and events in our communities. Volunteering to further the Chamber's mission has been such a rewarding experience that I encourage others to join us," said Layton.

Lobster Trap Tree Lighting Ceremony

Saturday November 26 at 4:30pm will be the official lighting of the 2nd Annual Lobster Trap Tree in Stonington CT. It will be bigger and better than last year! We have grown the project from 360 traps to 420 traps and the height of the tree will expand from 24 feet to 27 feet. We have invested an additional $3600 in lights as well. The tree has deep personal meaning to many and we are excited to include 40 buoys painted by children, 7 memorial buoys, 3 wedding buoys, 24 buoys dedicated to fishing operations at the town dock and over 325 buoys representing artists, community members and sponsors. There will be a very special surprise performance at the ceremony and free refreshments. The tree will shine brightly each evening from 4:30-9:30 through mid January. Thank you to everyone for their support of this community art exhibition. The talent of our artists is incredible. To learn more and to see the buoys visit lobstertraptree.com. If you would like to volunteer for a shift as a tree docent, please contact Lisa Konicki at 401-596-7761.

Maria Pucci Helps Chamber Reach for the Sky!

With the upcoming Starry Lights project expanding in size and topping over $95,000 in expenses, a new fundraiser needed to be produced to help close the gap of over $20,000 additional expenses. Maria Pucci of Bella Vita Salon stepped up to the challenge and single handedly produced the STARRY NIGHT event at the United Theatre on October 8 from 5-8pm. With over 42 sponsors and over 400 people attending, the event will go a long way to help pay for the additional illuminated sculptures. At just $50 a person including open bar, great foods and a preview of one of the major sculptures, this was the best valued ticket in town. The great music of Lucas Neil in the gallery and the Sixties Explosion in the black box were a perfect pairing. Thank you to the terrific sponsors and all who attended.
