Photos of Summer 2024 Sought!

The OCCC will begin working on our 2025 Travel Guide later this Fall. We would like to include images of our beautiful shoreline community, recreational activities such as fishing, golf and surfing, beach images and special events. We look for blue sky and use candid (we do not use posed family photos). Please email your favorite images for consideration and photo credit in the magazine if we use them, by November 1, 2024 to info@oceanchamber.org

October 1 Panel Discussion Teen Cell Phone Use in Business Environment

The Ocean Community Chamber of Commerce is partnering with the Westerly Public Schools, Stonington Public Schools, Town of Westerly and Town of Stonington and the Greater Mystic Chamber of Commerce on an initiative to address smart phone use for kids. Our chamber's role focuses on the business community and what can be done to combat the negative affects that impact the customer experience in the workplace. Please consider attending our October 1 panel discussion "Ramifications of Childhood Rewiring" which will be facilitated by Dr. Ravitt Stein. The book "The Anxious Generation" provides a jumping off point for this important topic. It takes place 6-7:30 pm at the Stonington Como and is free and open to the public. We are grateful to Jon Kodama of Steak Loft/Breakwater and Go Fish, Adam Young of Sift and Matt Haugen of the Stonington Como who will be participating along with the two Superintendents of Schools. For more information on the "Heads Up" initiative for the two state region, look on Instagram at @waituntil8th_oceancommunity

Westerly & Mystic Paints

Westerly Paints is a family owned and operated business for over 35 years. Many of you have known Paul Donahue and his sons- Troy and Brandon- as the faces of Westerly Paints. Paul has been a staple not only at Westerly Paints, but also in the community. The time has come for Paul to enjoy retirement and pass down his endless years in the paint industry to his two sons, both who have been working in the store since they were in high school. Back in July of 2020, the brothers purchased Mystic Paints located at 50 Williams Ave. Donnie, Troy and Brandon's cousin, became the manager of Mystic Paints after the acquisition. Both Troy and Brandon are thrilled to bring the family's level of expertise and customer service to the Mystic community. They are excited to keep the paint tradition in the family, and look forward to growing the business in new ways while still keeping the small town, family-friendly vibe in each store. Everyone at Westerly and Mystic Paints is ready to assist you in any of your painting project needs.

Whether you're looking for help choosing colors, advice on specific products and projects, or even Festool sanders and dust extractors, Westerly and Mystic Paints is here to help you choose the right products for your job.

For over 160 years, the Westerly Band has been entertaining local and not so local audiences with its varied musical talents. As a rare adult marching and concert band composed of over 30 people ranging in age from teens to 90s, the Westerly Band marches at a variety of cultural and religious processions and festivals and civic parades. It also performs a number of yearly concerts and additional special ones. These concerts feature a wide selection of pieces from old time classics to current musical/movie themes to blues and jazz. And of course, marches. Several years ago, the Westerly Band performed for a concert to rededicate its renovated bandstand in Wilcox Park and was able to play some of the original music from the bandstand's dedication and first concert in 1902. The Westerly Band Children's concert in June is a favorite for all ages! Annual Concerts: Garden Market Fair Concert, Children's Concert, Our Lady of Mount Carmel Concert, Mystic River Concert, Shelter Harbor Concert, Wilcox Park Concert, and Christmas Concert. Parades: Westerly Memorial Fireman's Parade, Westerly/Pawcatuck Memorial Day Parade, Our Lady of Mount Carmel Procession, Blessing of the Fleet Procession, Holy Ghost Festival, Columbus Day Parade, and Veterans Day Parade.
