

VAPING IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

School-provided data (Kingsport and Rogersville) were recorded during the 2022-2023 academic year.
Court-provided data (Hawkins County and Sullivan County) were recorded from May 1, 2022, to May 23, 2023.

11.7%

of vaping offenses (28 of 267)
in Kingsport City Schools
involved THC products

38.5%

of vaping offenses in Kingsport City Schools involved middle schoolers

1.1%

of vaping offenses in Kingsport
City Schools involved
elementary schoolers

14

total vaping offenses were reported in Rogersville City Schools from fourth through eighth grades

26

vaping offenses recorded in Hawkins County listed the student's number of total offenses

57.7%

of those numbered vaping offenses
in Hawkins County were the student's first offense

34.6%

of those numbered vaping offenses
in Hawkins County were the student's second offense

Sullivan County (Incidents by Age)
Data Provided by Sullivan County Juvenile Court

Hawkins County (Incidents by Age)
Data Provided by Hawkins County Juvenile Court

GRAPHIC BY CHELSEA GILLENWATER/SIX RIVERS MEDIA | INFORMATION COMPILED BY TESSA WORLEY
SOURCES: SULLIVAN COUNTY JUVENILE COURT, HAWKINS COUNTY JUVENILE COURT, KINGSFORT CITY SCHOOLS, ROGERSVILLE CITY SCHOOLS, HAWKINS COUNTY SCHOOLS | IMAGE FROM METRO CREATIVE GRAPHICS

NOTES: The Times News also requested data from Bristol City Schools and Sullivan County Schools. Bristol City Schools does not collect information on vaping incidents. Sullivan County Schools collects data but was unable to provide information on offenses by grade level. All information on Sullivan County vaping offenses was provided by the county's juvenile court.