

Harbor board discusses accounting contract, examines tsunami damage

BY ROGER GITLIN
Country Media, Inc.

The harbor board voted three in favor of and two opposed to changing bookkeeper Sandy Moreno's contract to become a paid employee of the harbor. Moreno is currently an independent contractor, keeping the books for the harbor, a position she asked for board approval to keep moving forward.

The vote came due to some board members seeking to retain Moreno as an employee.

Prior to the vote, Moreno presented her case to the board.

"Some folks like to work in chaos. I don't," she said. "I appreciate working with astute people."

Moreno asked for 100 percent support, but commissioners Dan Schmidt and Annie Nehmer oppose the contract stating it would be better if Moreno was an employee of the harbor.

"Moreno's position takes a job away from the harbor," Nehmer said at the meeting.

With the board's 3-2 vote, Moreno will continue as a contracted bookkeeper, earning $75 per hour typically working 18 hours per month on the harbor's finances.

Commissioners heard a call for unity from the public, even as the harbor works to recover from last month's tsunami. A member of the audience reminded the board the community is depending on them to row in the same direction.

"I had hoped the five of you commissioners would work to move forward to make this harbor a success," said an audience member. "My observation is, this isn't happening. You need to figure out what you want to do and need to get with it."

Diehl Sentenced Modified

BY ROGER GITLIN
Country Media, Inc.

Sentencing came last week for Alexandra Danielle Diehl for her role in the hit and run death of Peter Jun Ming Nip. The 80 year old was struck walking across the crosswalk at Northcrest at East Madison St. Mr. Nip was pushing a shopping cart when the vehicle operated by Diehl struck Nip who was thrown into the southbound lanes and was struck again by two other southbound vehicles. Nip was pronounced dead on arrival at Sutter Coast Hospital. The accident occurred around 6pm, December 4, last year.

The CHP arrested Diehl at her home around 8:20PM.

Both Prosecution and Defense agreed to change the charge from Manslaughter to leaving the scene where a death of injury had occurred.

The mandatory sentence could be from two-three years in State Prison.

Diehl had no priors or convictions but over the years, evidence showed she used alcohol and drugs while operating a motor vehicle. The evidence was two DUI stops where she blew a .06 twice. The legal threshold is .08.

The People and Diehl agreed to a one year sentence in County Jail and be assigned three years felony probation.

Judge Darren McElfresh acknowledged 17 different factors influencing the sentence, 12 favored Diehl, six were deemed unfavorable. McElfresh determined his highest priority is to protect the public. The two year prison was suspended, pending the successful completion of all the terms of the sentence.

McElfresh stated, in many ways, the strict program will be more stringent than a prison sentence. The Judge acknowledged nothing can bring back Peter Nip. Defense counsel David Cooper has acknowledged Diehl has already joined an Alcohol Anonymous group and expressed to the Court and the community her deep remorse to the family and her intent to write a letter to the Nip family.

Probation will include at least 15 hours of public service to Del Norte County, no drug or alcohol use.

Diehl reports to the jail within seven days of the sentence.

“Del Norte Ambulance Provides Satisfactory Service to the Community”

BY ROGER GITLIN
Country Media, Inc.

The above quote is attributable to EndPoint Consultants.

Funded by an emergency grant from the Department of Health and Human Services, EndPoint Consultants delivered a Phase One review of emergency medical services (EMS) status to the Board of Supervisors, last Tuesday.

The important fact to note is there was no new information disclosed to the supervisors and the public and nothing had been disclosed in the report made previously aware.

A special Ad Hoc Committee for the Board was created some 18 months ago. Comprising the Ad Hoc were Supervisors Darrin Short and Valerie Starkey. North Coast EMS director Larry Karstadt was also part of the Ad Hoc group.

Karstadt advised the two Supervisors the idea of supplanting Del Norte Ambulance had no evidence to support replacement. Over the decades, Del Norte Ambulance has earned endorsements from Sutter Coast Hospital, the Del Norte Sheriff Dept, and customers who've experienced DNAMB.

Still, the Ad Hoc moved ahead seeking a request for Proposal (RFP) recommending the full board explore options to replace DNAMB.

The costs associated EndPoint are approaching $150,000 and heading north from this point.

The question begs to be asked:
Is this cost to conduct the End-Point oversight justified?

End Point Assessment of Del Norte Ambulance Leaves Supervisor’s Starkey, Short, and Borges With Egg on Their Faces

I would suspect now is the time to rip the band aide off the proverbial festering wound. At the first meeting in August of the Del Norte County Board of Supervisors (BOS), it became painfully obvious at least three of the members of intention of doing what is right and beneficial for the citizens they represent. Although not surprising.

Supervisors Starkey, Short and Chair Borges were visibly uncomfortable with the results of End Point EMS’s assessment of Del Norte Ambulance’s (DNAMB) performance over a two-year span concluding DNAMB had met the contractual obligations for EMS service in Del Norte County. Nothing like a well-deserved slap in the face of three of the Board’s “geniuses” who assured the County’s residents their “thorough” investigation of DNA’s performance while serving on an Ad Hoc committee to evaluate DNA’s request to become the County’s sole ambulance provider revealed DNA did not meet its obligations for EMS service. An investigation now proven to be false!

The Ad Hoc committee composed of Starkey and Short relied exclusively on a letter by Fire Chief Kevin Carey and the remaining county fire chiefs claiming “poor” response times and questionable performance by ambulance crews. No evidence of those claims being substantiated or factual has ever surfaced following the Ad Hoc committee’s report to the board in a February 2024 meeting. The remaining members of the EMS community, the city police, the sheriff’s department, the highway patrol, or the hospital expressed any similar concerns. How strange? Thorough huh!

This bogus reporting by Supervisor’s Starkey and Short and Del Norte’s fire chiefs allowed the board coupled with Supervisor Borges to deny DNA an exclusive operating permit and institute a Request for Provider to replace DNA as the ambulance service in Del Norte County. Public outcry against this action by the board has done little to change the board’s course. An expensive consultant, End Point was the result. $160,000 and counting flushed down the toilet to produce an assessment of long recognized EMS deficiencies, none of which have anything to do with poor performance by DNA. JUST GREAT!

Will the egos on the board admit they were wrong? Not likely! Supervisor Starkey thinks more data will change the outcome of her poor decision. Supervisor Short thinks the assessment is somehow “new” information well worth the “emergency” funding spent. Chair Borges remains unengaged and the RFP trud-dles pointlessly on. What will it take for Borges, Starkey, and Short to understand THEY WERE WRONG?

In the meantime, DNAMB, after being thoroughly disrespected by the BOS and the county’s fire chiefs, had undertaken steps to correct the EMS deficiencies above and beyond its contractual obligations before End Point’s assessment was even revealed to the BOS. A fourth ambulance is to be stationed in Klamath. DNA’s contract only requires three. An enhanced dispatch service to supplement the Sheriff’s dispatch service was installed by DNA.

Still, Supervisors Starkey and Short prattle on in defense of their abysmal performance as Ad Hoc committee members. Chair Borges appears to have removed himself from any participation in county government. No board reports, barely a presence at meetings. Is this the kind of leadership the county’s citizens have come to accept?

Following End Point’s assessment down the well-traveled path outlining the County’s EMS deficiencies, DEL NORTE AMBULANCE, looks to have taken the initiative to correct those issues within the glaring omissions of the County’s contract for ambulance service at their own expense. The remainder of End Point’s assessment points a finger at the deception of the county’s fire chief’s and the Ad Hoc committee of Supervisors Short and Starkey.

The remainder of the issues in the report highlight the need for the BOS to give the Sheriff’s department the tools necessary to improve outcomes in dispatch and correct the unprofessional lack of cooperation by the fire hierarchy when engaged with ambulance personnel in emergency situations. None of which reflects badly on Del Norte Ambulance’s service to the community over its near forty years’ service in Del Norte County.

So, where are we now? It remains for Supervisors Short, Starkey, and Chair Borges to “DO THE RIGHT THING”! The RFP should be immediately suspended. End Point should receive fair compensation. DEL NORTE AMBULANCE SHOULD RECEIVE AN EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO PROVIDE SERVICE! Supervisors Short, Starkey, and Borges should be reprimanded for wasting County resources. Kevin Carey and the local fire chiefs should be reminded to “stay in their own lane and cooperate”!

Bow Attacks on Elk in Bertsch Tract

Did you know that elk are now being hunted with bows on a tiny patch of land in the center of the Bertsch-Oceanview area? A patch completely surrounded by residential neighborhoods, houses, roads, businesses, busy thoroughfares, and children’s school bus stops.

I learned this the hard way. One recent Saturday afternoon, I was enjoying my day off watching a little college football when my wife pointed out a man walking through our neighbor’s yard carrying a rifle. I ran to the window and saw that it was a game warden. We then saw a large elk in obvious distress, tangled in some foliage.

The warden then shot the elk with his 30-06 rifle right outside our window. After the warden shot the injured animal, I waved him over and asked him why this had happened. He told me the elk had been wounded. I asked if it was a traffic accident; he said no—it was from a bow hunt next door. A bow hunt? I was flabbergasted. How could anyone imagine that bow hunting elk on such a small parcel of land would not lead to this kind of incident?

Then to top it off, we had to listen to the animal being butchered for the next four hours with something that sounded like an electric chainsaw. The game warden had apparently instructed the hunter to move his four-wheeler between us and the butchering so we wouldn’t be able to see it happening.

This is not to mention that this elk suffered for almost two and a half hours before the warden even showed up to kill it.

The issue here is that bow hunting in such a small, hemmed-in parcel almost guarantees wounded animals will run into nearby neighborhoods and properties. The hunters are not allowed to leave the hunting area and chase the animals onto private property.

Imagine what we have here: a 1,000-pound animal with a head full of antlers, grievously wounded, running rampant through the neighborhood. Does this sound like a good idea to you?

In California law, the definition of a public nuisance is anything that interferes with the quiet enjoyment of your property; this seems to qualify to me. Even the warden admitted to me this constituted a public nuisance. We learned this hunt is part of the SHARE program, a statewide access program administered by the Department of Fish and Wildlife. While they can authorize a hunt on a specific location, DFWD cannot authorize large, wounded animals running through neighborhoods.

We asked the property owners to stop allowing hunting, but they refused. We asked the Department of Fish and Wildlife to rescind the authorization, and after months of delay, it refused as well.

I want to be clear: I am not making a statement about hunting in general or wildlife management. I am only opposing bow hunting elk in this specific location, for the reasons mentioned.

This poses a real public safety and quality-of-life concern here in Del Norte County. And no one benefits except these wealthy hunters who come in from out of town and pay thousands to kill our elk.

This is also completely unnecessary. This one small herd, approximately 25 individuals, is known as the Elk Creek herd. I have been watching and counting them for about six years now, and they have not had a population explosion. The elk, as we all know, are gentle, skittish creatures. Yes, they may nibble on our flowers from time to time, but this is hardly a reason to eradicate them.

A few more points: I can walk up to these elk and get within 20 to 25 feet of them. They have never been hunted on this piece of land, and they are quite domesticated. So I would ask—how much sportsmanship is in this type of “hunt”?

The public has virtually no input on the SHARE hunt program. The public is never told where these hunting parcels have been authorized, and only in very loose terms when the hunt is going to occur. The SHARE hunt program is very opaque and largely unaccountable to the public.

I think everyone in the Bertsch-Oceanview area needs to be on the lookout for these types of incidents. The hunting season runs from August 16 through the middle of December. It’s possible that we could be seeing a lot more of these problems. Contact the Board of Supervisors and the Department of Fish and Wildlife And let’s stop hunting elk in the middle of the Bertsch- Oceanview view district!

maker. This figure pales in comparison to the $50 million disaster of 2011, when the entire docks were ripped apart, vessels destroyed, and the harbor left crippled for months.

“By contrast, the current damage, though serious, is also more manageable,” Rademaker continued. “We have multiple teams of world-renowned engineers coming forward, donating their time and expertise to help us develop solutions.”

Coastal engineers and tsunami researchers, including those who advised the district after the 2011 disaster, have begun advising commissioners. Among them is Dr. Patrick Lynett, Professor of Coastal Engineering at the University of Southern California, a nationally recognized authority on tsunamis and coastal dynamics.

Also on board is Rob

Sloop Vice President and Coastal Engineer at Moffatt & Nichol, a firm with deep experience in marine and coastal infrastructure. Sloop has been on the ground offering technical advice on both immediate recovery and long-term structural improvements.

Rademaker exclaimed, “Unity is essential in the face of shared challenges. The Harbor District now has an opportunity to turn a disaster into a model of resilience.”

College Begins the Fall Semester

BY ROGER GITLIN
Country Media, Inc.

“College is for Everyone,” says Dr. Kristin Lima, Dean of Education at College of the Redwoods-Del Norte campus.

Classes have begun this past Monday but if you act expediently, you might be able to enter an academic, technical or special program you’ve long dreamed of pursuing.

Dr. Lima asked the question, “What do you want to do? We have the program and pathway to help you reach success.”

50 percent of the 500 students at CR are on a four year college path. The other half attend to embrace the training to become immediately employable.

This past June CR graduated 45 students toward four year degree programs or specialized programs in nursing and other technical disciplines. Again, Dr. Lima underscored her statement, “College IS for Everyone.”

Infrastructure projects are well underway including the planned Healthcare Center offering emergency medical training, licensed vocational nursing, registered nursing programs where upon certificate success, good paying jobs await.

Post K12, education is gratis, courteous of the State. You have only to make the call or stop by College of the Redwoods Del Norte to realize your dream.

Are you safe in the waters off Del Norte County

RALPH S. COLLIER
Shark Research Committee

On 23 July 2025 Cody Gardner and three companions were fishing a familiar location about 300 feet from shore near Wilson Creek Beach at the north end of False Klamath Cove near the town of Klamath. It was about 8:00am when they had moved several times to their present location. The sky was overcast with no discernable wind and a very calm sea surface. They had caught many fish which they had cleaned in their kayaks with blood discharging into the water.

It was about 9:30am when Gardner noticed a very large Great White Shark about two feet below the surface passing by his kayak. The shark was heading from the stern of his kayak toward the bow and was turned on its side looking at him as it passed. The shark then turned toward the right and headed down toward the bottom. He yelled, “Great White” and was immediately hit by the shark. It grabbed the bow on the port side of the kayak shaking it for 2-3 seconds before releasing it and swimming out of sight. The group huddled together and headed toward shore. None of the fishermen were injured.

So, why did the shark attack his kayak? To understand why we need to know that there are only three types of interactions that can occur between a shark and a human or inanimate object; investigation, provoked attack, and unprovoked attack. Encounter; A shark encounter typically consists of a shark leisurely circling and/or slowly swimming past the subject without any aggressive behavior being exhibited. Encounters are always non-violent, and the shark’s movements are usually described as “smooth and methodical.” Divers have referred to this shark behavior as “being checked out by a shark.” It is somewhat compelling that there are more shark encounters annually off the Pacific Coast than provoked or unprovoked attacks combined. Provoked; A provoked shark attack is the result of a human taking an offensive action that causes a shark to attack. These actions could be pulling a shark’s tail, jabbing or poking a shark with a spear gun or similar object, cornering or cutting off a shark’s route to open water, attempting to feed a shark by hand, chumming or baiting a shark to your area, and/or making an aggressive gesture toward an approaching shark. These are just a few examples of the types of actions that might provoke a shark to strike out. Unprovoked; An unprovoked shark attack is the aggressive pursuit, biting or striking of a human or their equipment, without any known provocative action by the subject. This is not to say that the subject might not have displayed a provocative gesture that triggered the attack; only that no provocative action was known to have occurred. Any physical contact between a shark and a human, or piece of equipment being utilized by the human, constitutes an unprovoked shark attack. For example, there are numerous cases - mostly involving surfers - of shark attacks recorded along the Pacific Coast where only the equipment being used in the water activity was bitten by the attacking shark.

What was the motivation for the attack on the kayak? There are also only three primary categories of shark behaviors or motivations; investigation, predatory, or displacement. Investigation; the shark approaches an object and frequently circles and/or swims up to it and eventually takes a bite. The movements of the shark are generally slow and methodical without an violent aggression being directed at the object. Predatory; the shark targets a prey, whether fish or marine mammal, and pursues and subdues the animal, frequently with a high energy impact that immobilizes or kills the prey on contact. This action can involve a bite or ramming the prey. Displacement; is usually a violent response by the shark to an object or individual that it perceives to be a threat to its space or territory. This area can be for feeding, mating, or pupping. These violent aggressive actions are frequently preceded with displays or agitated body movements, which are not generally observed at the surface of the water.

So it would appear that the attack on Gardner’s kayak was motivated by the chumming of fish blood and would therefore be considered provoked. Because the shark struck and held the kayak it would be considered a displacement behavior to drive the object from an area being used for hunting by the shark.

However the question still remains - ‘are the waters off Del Norte County safe’? To answer that question we need to check the history of shark attacks in California. From 1950 to Gardner’s incident in July 2025 there have been 242 verifiable shark attacks directed at humans. Of this number, only 4 (1.65%) , representing 3 surfers and Gardner’s kayak, occurred in Del Norte County. Statistically these numbers are not significant compared to other hazards faced in our daily lives, unless of course you are the subject of such an event. However, there are some suggestions for those utilizing California’s coastal waters that might lower the possibility and provide you with some peace of mind.

These are General Principals that can be applied to all ocean water user groups;

1. Never enter the sea alone. Participation in any water-sport activity is more enjoyable - and certainly safer - when accompanied by a companion.
 2. Seek certification in advanced CPR and emergency first aid from an accredited school or organization.
 3. Carry on your person at all times a 1 - meter (3ft) length of surgical tubing, for use as a tourniquet in the event of arterial (pulsed) bleeding.
 4. Be aware of your surroundings and watch for unusual behavior by marine organisms, such as bait fish jumping out of the water a sign something might be chasing them or a marine mammal moving swiftly to shore or a rock to exit the water. These actions could alert you to a sharks presences.
 5. If you suddenly become ‘uneasy’ leave the water immediately as your instincts might be providing a warning of impending danger.
 6. If a shark has been reported recently in a specific area you might want to consider another location or day to engage in your ocean water activity.
 7. Avoid areas near streams or rivers during seasons when salmon or other anadromous fishes are spawning.
 8. Avoid utilizing areas near pinniped (seal and sea lion) haul out sites or rookeries, for obvious reasons.
 9. Avoid wearing jewelry as the suns reflection will possibly mimic an injured fish and attract the attention of any shark nearby.
 10. Avoid cleaning fish or other marine organisms in the water as it could attract a shark to that location.
- Finally, use common sense when engaged in ocean water activities and know that statistically you have a greater probability of being injured or killed by a cow than you do by a shark. Enjoy our oceans responsibly and with compassion for those creatures that live therein.

The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the County where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder’s office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. All bids are subject to California Civil Code 2924h and are sold “AS-IS”. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 844-693-4761 or visit this internet website www.awest.us, using the file number assigned to this case 25-003631 Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction if conducted after January 1, 2021, pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an “eligible tenant buyer,” you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an “eligible bidder,” you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 844-693-4761, or visit this internet website www.awest.us, using the file number assigned to this case 25-003631 to find the date on which the trustee’s sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee’s sale. Third, you must submit a bid, by remitting the funds and affidavit described in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code, so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee’s sale. If you think you may qualify as an “eligible tenant buyer” or “eligible bidder,” you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. If the sale is set aside for any reason, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit paid. Ambulance

To date, DHHS has yet to declare the emergency; nonetheless, supervisors voted 3-2 months ago to move forward on a request for Proposal (RFP) instead of grandfathering Del Norte Ambulance (DNAMB) contract after 2027.

At last Tuesday’s Board meeting, Karstadt, re-introduced Nancy Lapolla and John Eaglesham of EndPoint to deliver its assessment of phase one of the EMS system in Del Norte.

Evaluated areas included the Sheriff Dispatch process, Bay City Ambulance agreement with the County, Del Norte Ambulance, North Coast EMS agreement and the Continuous Quality Improvement Process.

Because of the relatively modest amount of 911 calls, EndPoint conducted a two year study for 2023 and 2024. This last year, 9-1-1 calls were down from 2023.

Del Norte Ambulance was definitely the elephant in the room. Five different fire chiefs in Del Norte also affixed their signatures on a document stating Del Norte Ambulance was inadequate to serve the public and urged the Board to move forward on the RFP. The TriPLICATE attempted to follow up with all five, none of the chiefs did not return calls to explain their vote following the release of the letter.

To the contrary, the independent EndPoint Consultants joined other agencies who found no issue with Del Norte Ambulance and displayed no deficiencies. DNAMB was and is quite adequate, debunking the chiefs, the two Ad Hoc supervisors.

The one area of concern of needed improvement was directed to Sheriff dispatch.

Supervisor Dean Wilson, a former Sheriff, supported the EndPoint presentation and underscored the challenges in hiring and retaining dispatchers.

Charles Tweed, General Manager of Del Norte Ambulance read a letter from DNAMB principal Ron Sandler, who was unable to attend Tuesday’s presentation for medical reasons. Tweed stated “It’s time to do the right thing.” Supervisor Chris Howard concurred with Wilson and expressed his support for DNAMB. Except for a non-related question on a discrepancy on EndPoint reporting how 9-1-1 Emergency calls are tallied, Supervisor Darrin Short, also a volunteer fireman, was uncharacteristically mum with no questions or comments on the revelation delivered by EndPoint.

DNAMB conducts its business satisfactorily. No comments from member Valerie Starkey...more crickets...and who has heretofore been critical of DNAMB operations. Chairman Joey Borges continued his silence similar to his behavior at each Board meeting, by failing to communicate with the public on his positions.

Two questions must be asked: Will the Board continue to squander precious revenue for no apparent reason other than ego satisfaction? And is the newly-merged Crescent City Fire and Rescue seeking to supplant a four decades plus Del Norte Ambulance with a new office in Klamath, for what appears to be a purely political move?

set for Sept. 6

By SCOTT GRAVES

The Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation is hosting its 18th annual Dee-ni' Day from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 6, at the Howonquet Hall Community Center in Smith River, across from Lucky 7 Casino.

no. The free event is open to the public and the entire community to enjoy. The event will feature cultural demonstrations including regalia and necklace making, and the baking of traditional sand bread. There will be a tribal citizen art show, men's card games, shell dice tournament and a regalia showcase. There will also be 60-plus food and art vendors offering items such as high-quality beads and jewelry, apparel, fine art, woodwork, glasswork, baskets and more. This is a fantastic opportunity to support local artists, find unique gifts for friends and families, and get treats for yourself. There will also be a variety of children and adult activities such as bounce houses, face painting, a balloon artist, and a horseshoe tournament. Several Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation departments and local nonprofit organizations will host booths to share information, opportunities and services as well. A highlight of Dee-ni' Day are the stick games, starting at 1 p.m., with athletes of all ages battling for bragging rights and cash prizes. The games, held on the beach, is a strenuous sport for men and women that combines the strength and agility of wrestling and rugby with the quick action of field hockey. Game play can get rough, with players tackling or wrestling one another to the ground. Parking at the Howonquet Hall Community Center, basketball court and UIHS is reserved for elder. We ask that those who can please park in the overflow parking at the Howonquet Cemetery on South Indian Road. More parking is available across the street at Lucky 7 Casino. When walking across Highway 101 to and from Lucky 7 Casino to the event please use the crosswalk and be cautious of fast-moving vehicles. A shuttle will be available. The schedule of events will include food and art vendors, children's activities, cultural demonstrations, regalia showcase, shell dice and horseshoe tournament, stick games (at the beach) food samples, cultural events and an art show display that people can vote on. The winners of the art show will be announced at 4 p.m. For more information about Dee-ni' Day please contact Public Information Officer Scott Graves at: 707-487-9255 ext. 1183 Email: scott.graves@tolowa.gov.
