word. Camilla's aunt owned a flower shop in Ashland and the precocious 18 year old would often travel from Jackson county to visit friends in Del Norte and Sonoma County. Her route meandered along the 199.

Camilla's mode of traveling often utilized the use of her right thumb; she was a hitchhiker.

October 30, 1994 marked the 30th anniversary, the Del Norte Sheriff found her remains in a gully next to The Smith, in Stout Grove. An autopsy of the body revealed the teen had been raped.

Then-DNSD Investigator Bill Steven was the lead in this terrible tragedy. Aided by then-Deputy Gene McManus, both lawmen began the search for the rapist / murderer. Steven promoted to Sergeant and

The Crescent City Council discussed ideas of the Highway 101 S Curve/ Front Street and Gateway Beautification Project.

The City applied for and was awarded a nearly $3 million grant for the Cultural Gateway project. The project includes establishing a Gateway, expanding Beachfront Park beyond 101 to Front and N Street, cleaning the banks of Elk Creek, improving public access at the Cultural Center and Point of Honor, establishing a starting point for the Tolowa Interpretive Walk and moving the Transit Hub to a safer and more convenient location.

Greenworks PC is the lead design consultant for the City's Beachfront Park improvements. Stover Engineering and SeaReach Signage are currently working on the project.

The primary focus will be on the intersection of Front Street and 101. The objective is to establish a sense of arrival and guide visitors down Front Street to Beachfront Park.

Time is of the essence. The Clean California Grant stipulates all funds must be expended by June 30, 2026. Cal Trans and Coastal Development permits must be completed by February 2025. Councilors discussed three draft options. City Manager Eric Wier reminded the present four lane road will be reduced to two lanes. Option three involving an archway seemed to gather the most appeal.

There was consensus to not block any view of Point of Honor, south-west corner of Front and 101.

The discussion also involved a possible name change atop the proposed arch. The discussion of retaining Ocean Front Drive or substituting Beach Front Drive on the archway or simply Welcome to Crescent City will continue.

The Council will resume discussion on the grant, this week.

Crescent City pays homage to its armed forces Veterans Monday. Veterans Day, formally called Armistice Day, is celebrated November 11, commemorating the official end of the Great World War (World War I) on the 11th hour of the 11th month, 1918. Armistice Day's name was officially changed to Veterans Day in 1945.

The Veterans Day Parade will commence at 10AM in front of the Veterans Memorial Building, 8th and H Streets and will head south on H to 3rd Street, turn east to K, south on K and terminate at the Point of Honor Monument on Front St.

Group participation is encouraged.

Lunch will be served at the Veterans Memorial Building at 11:30. Vets and children under five eat free. All others $10.

The United States has set aside three days in the year for different specific groups who serve or have served. Armed Forces Day, the newest day of recognition, was established to recognize and honor those who are currently serving in the active and reserve components of the armed forces, Memorial Day, which is the oldest American recognition of service and was established to honor the sacrifice made by those who died in the service of the United States and Veterans Day. Additionally, VFW Post 1381 recognizes and awards an

GUEST COLUMN

I Called 911 and Nobody Came

By SAMUEL STRAIT
Crescent City

The bunglers were at it again. October 22nd the Del Norte Board of Supervisors had another bite at the Sheriff deputy apple and whiffed. The Sheriff made every effort to appear accommodating, offered a significantly less than adequate offer to correct the declining path of the staffing problem.

Item #13 on the Board's agenda passed 5-0 with little effort by the Board to understand whether or not this miniscule change in compensation for the deputies of the Sheriff's Department would do anything at all to accomplish the task before them. Not a single question, not surprising!

Our elected less-informed elected apparently missed the part about State-wide deputies making an average hourly wage of $39.32. Paying $10.00 less per hour than the State-wide average is hardly a successful way to stop the bleeding. Increasing wages for deputies in the "new" step adjustments package with insignificant increases hardly moves the needle. Worse yet, it has given the Board the opportunity to ignore the problem until the Sheriff's Department effectively ceases to exist. Hardly surprising.

In words of two syllables or less, it has been explained repeatedly to the Board of Supervisors that when you have highly sought after employees and there's a shortage of said employees, continued employment of such people will only occur if you pay them, decently.

..Such a simple concept. All that being said, it begs belief that this Board of short-term problem solvers can't seem to get their collective acts together before something much more serious than the July 4th South-beach event happens due to this obvious negligence.

What continues to expose this Board's recklessness is the fact that somewhat over $4 million sits in the Measure R bank account which was specifically promised by County government when it passed, that deficiencies in the Sheriff's department would be addressed. Memo to Board: this is precisely what the money in Measure R was meant to correct! So, where's the BEEF?

It is pathetic that this Board has to be continually reminded its most important task is providing safety and security for Del Norte County. Thus far, supervisors are failing miserably. Until such time this Board of Supervisors gets up off their collective posteriors and becomes competitive in the world of compensation of deputy sheriffs, this debacle will only worsen.

The Sheriff's department in its present configuration will have just 10 officers to patrol the entire Rhode Island-sized county 24/7. The sobering figures are down from twenty-four deputies just ten years ago. For the Board's continuing education, it will be IMPOSSIBLE and FUTILE for the Sheriff to accomplish his sworn duty with such limited patrol staff. That's ABSURD! Are the words too big?

IM-POSS-i-BLE!
In addition, if this Board cannot see its way to raise the current compensation package sufficiently to retain and hire new deputies, the DNSD will remain a training department for other jurisdictions; this is hardly the way to treat an important asset. This is a call for action. Too often the Board is confronted with angry citizens over issues that are not as dire as what we are facing now due to the IR RE SPON si BLE behavior of this Board toward its most important department. Things need to change now!!! THIS IS A 9-1-1 CALL, not at the end of February, not within the next budget cycle, Wake up, supervisors NOW!

OBITUARY

Jean Johnston

8/1/1933 - 10/7/2024

It is with heavy hearts we announce the passing of our beloved mother and grandmother, Jean Ticken Johnston.

Jean left this world early on October 7th, 2024, in the Smith River home where she raised her family. She is survived by children Kent (Kellie), Grant, Dana (Craig), grandchildren Rhen (Jennifer) Cody, Michelle (Julian), Stacey, and great-grandchildren Caelan and Luke. She was 91 years old.

Jean was born August 1, 1933, in Saskatchewan, Canada, to an American family, with 4 much older siblings. Jean lost her mother at age 2, her older siblings and father stepping up to raise her as the youngest child.

At the age of 10, Jean and her family relocated to San Dimas, California, where her father managed an orange grove and Jean helped run the home while she attended school. It was there, as a high school student, that she met who would become her partner for life, Oscar W. Johnston.

Jean and Oscar were married in 1953, when Jean was 20. Oscar had recently been drafted to serve in the Korean War.

Following Oscar's military service, the two moved to West Covina and began to expand their family to 5, before relocating a final time to Smith River, California.

Jean and Oscar shared a mutual love of many interests, mainly involving the beauty of nature. They enjoyed camping and anything to do with the outdoors, which inspired Oscar to begin a career as a wildlife sculptor. Jean managed the sales and client relations of their business, and in later years, began making jewelry and baskets to add to their creative brand.

They used natural elements for their art, like redwood from the forests and kelp and driftwood from the beach, depicting the wildlife that inhabited the area. They operated a small gallery for their creations which Jean ran for many years.

While Jean was a successful entrepreneur and creative alongside Oscar, her most important self-proclaimed title was 'Mom'. She helped in church classes, school classes and was active in both Boy and Girl Scouts.

As her children grew, she widened her scope of service. Jean sat on the Juvenile Justice Committee in the late 70's. She was a long-time member of Soroptimist International, the Pacific Flyway Decoy Association, and the Pelican Bay Arts Association. Perhaps Jean's longest relationship with an organization was that with her church, having joined the Smith River United Methodist Church upon moving to Smith River in 1964. Her love and service for this community spanned across sixty years.

Throughout these years, Jean made many wonderful friends and cherished those relationships.

Following Oscar's passing in 2009, after 56 years of marriage, Jean persevered even then, finding great pride in successfully operating a vacation rental property with her family home.

Jean made clear to all who knew her that her greatest success was her family. Her children, their children, and so on, all reflect the values and nurturing that she instilled in us. Jean said many times, "Don't listen to their words, watch their actions". This was how she lived her life. She showed her love through her actions. Jean may have left this world, but her love and memory live on in our hearts.

A Celebration of Life will be held for Jean at the United Methodist Church, 121 N. Beckstead Avenue, Smith River on Saturday, November 16th, 2024, at 11 am. Lunch will be provided following the service. Celebration of Life will be held 11/16/24 at 11:00am, Smith River United Methodist Church.

CORRECTION

The Triplicate attributed PACIFIC SEAFOODS leaving the Crescent Harbor to strict environmental regulations involving the use of an ammonia-based refrigerant in producing ice commercial fishermen in the Crescent City harbor.

The Triplicate erred in writing the position of Pacific Seafood leaving the Crescent City Harbor. Pacific Seafood released the following statement: "Six months ago we informed the Port of our difficult decision not to renew our lease on the ice plant. With fewer vessels buying ice, the operation was no longer economically viable. Recent claims that environmental regulations had any bearing on the decision are incorrect. Supporting the fleet remains our priority and we are committed to helping (Crescent City) to access ice in Brookings."

Smith River Lily Bulb Controversy

Smith River resident John Roberts addresses the Board on lily bulbs

by ROGER GITLIN
News Editor
Country Media, Inc.

Is the water safe to drink in the Smith River? Are copper minerals in the water shed contaminating the rich soil which help grow lily bulbs, a significant economic driver for Del Norte? The subject continues to vex Smith River residents. On this occasion, several community members addressed the supervisors at a recent presentation of the Northcoast Regional Water Quality Control Board and its two year environmental draft presentation. At the conclusion of the presentation, many members in the audience had plenty to say. A plethora of medical complaints included a shopping list of ailments: head aches, skin disorders, inability to breath and even bone cancer were attributed to the spraying of pesticides used to harvest lily bulbs. Are lily bulb chemicals and alleged high levels of copper causing health problems? The allegations were palpable. The evidence was negligible. Is this much ado about nothing? Jeff Beard, Director of the Smith River Water District underscored the water in Smith River is clean, fresh and absolutely safe to drink. He continued, “Smith River’s water source is upstream from Rowdy Creek, far from the lily bulb fields.” He continued, “recent testing showed only three parts ug/l. The maximum level of copper toxicity, according to the State is 1300 ug/L. Smith River water is 430x safer than the State level.” Beard suggested property owners should check older, aging water pipes within their homes for mineral toxicity. Every few years, the subject of water safety in the Smith River’s drinking water emerges. The last time these harrowing questions were brought to the Board was 2015 when the Siskiyou Land Conservancy addressed its profound concern regarding the harm reportedly caused by the lily bulb industry. Past surveys have shown no contamination of Smith River watershed; yet the scrutiny continues. The recent spate of health complaints is not new news to Smith River. John Roberts, a four-decades resident of Smith

River expressed his doubt on the economic impact of the Smith River lily bulb industry. “The farms employ minimum wage laborers,” he shared. Roberts expressed concern the alleged high rate of cancer deaths in Smith River. “No one talks about the “C” word in Smith River.” No lethality data of cancer deaths were brought to supervisors’ attention by public speaker Roberts. Lily bulb grower Becky Crockett (Crockett Farms) detailed a brief history of growing lily bulbs. Crockett shared the bulb history started in Curry County. At its zenith, she stated there were as many as 600 growers between southern Oregon and northern California back in the 1940s. A steady decline over the decades has diminished the lily bulb footprint to some 2000 acres and today there are but three remaining lily growers producing on some 200 acres of land, and no where near the Smith River watershed. Who or what should one believe? There is no question, there are some, even labeling themselves experts, who believe the economic driver of lily bulbs poses a clear and present danger and should be driven out of Del Norte; truth be told, there is no evidence to support that position. The Board directed Agricultural Commissioner Justin Riggs to research the subject and report to the supervisors, expediently. The Board meets the 2nd and 4th Tuesday’s at 10AM at the Flynn Center.

Harbor Updates Options Providing Ice to Fishermen

by ROGER GITLIN
News Editor
Country Media, Inc.

Crescent City Harbor-master (interim) Mike Rademaker acted expediently and boldly in addressing the absence of local ice production via the exit of Pacific Seafoods.

The intrepid harbor-master wasted no time in addressing short-term needs in preparation for the January 2025, crab and shrimp season.

Pacific Seafoods (PS) was operating an ice production plant on Citizen Dock when PS gave 30 day notice to the Harbor to terminate its lease due to the “prolonged lack of ice sales and the continuing increase in the cost of repairs and operational expenses.” One significant cost factor for PS has been the stringent regularity requirements in California compared to its operations in other states. Pacific Seafoods will continue to operate in Brookings Harbor. The regulatory bone of contention revolves around the process of utilizing the anhydrous ammonia refrigerant process, banned in the Golden State but legal in Oregon. California Environmental Health requires the modern (and costly) carbon / oxygen protocol. The estimated cost for a containerized ice plant is about $1 million. The Harbor is also exploring options with the

Harbormaster Mike Rademaker

California State Coastal Conservancy, the City of Crescent City and the Yurok Tribe.

Rademaker said, “The Harbor has been in active negotiations to establish a bulk ice purchase agreement with the PS Brookings plant. The agreement is mutually beneficial by increasing both local economies and reducing per-unit costs. The CCHD may also take responsibility for transporting the ice from Oregon and storing it in Del Norte county.”

Regarding long-term solutions, the Harbor is exploring multiple options. A “mobile container iced ice plant,” a system built into a standard 20 or 40 foot shipping container, will be the most cost-effective choice. A key issue with the former Citizens Dock ice plant was that it was designed for a much larger fishing fleet with greater ice demand.

Post Election, State Senate Pro Tempore Mike McGuire has pledged to meet with the Harbor, City, County and Tribal interests in finding a new ice source to serve the needs of Del Norte commercial fishermen.

retired as a Commander. McManus promoted to Sergeant. Both retired from the Department but remain active in Del Norte, to date.

The case weighed heavily on each. During the infancy of DNA, cases were oft-times difficult to solve.

The case went cold until 2001. Then Detective Steven caught a big break:

Another deputy was interviewing an individual charged in sexual assault case. The suspect was Robert Wigley. The Del Norte resident was accused of a sex crime against the daughter of Wigley’s then-girlfriend but the sheriff investigator wasn’t making much progress... until Steven happened along this unrelated investigation.

Steven was successful in convincing Wigley to admit to a fondling charge. 20 years ago, the fondling charge came with a modest one year sentence in the County jail. Toward the end of Wigley’s brief jail visit, Sgt. Steven conducted a DNA blood on test on Wigley and filed it with the Data Entry Clearinghouse, in Sacramento.

A year past until the hit was made Wigley was the rapist / murderer of Camilla Randall. The suspect was charged, convicted and sentenced to Life without parole, and remains in custody within the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation.

Steven did not realize it was his effort which solved the DNA connection until almost a year after Wigley, served his jail sentence.

Bill Steven remembers this case vividly. Steven, McManus and District Attorney A.C. Field all contributed to solving this case and serving justice. One can only conjecture how many young folks are alive today thanks to the dedicated and stout work of Steven, McManus and Field.

Sadly, Camilla Randall is not with us today. Her family hopes you will remember this gentle kind soul and lovely flower child who never had the opportunity to live her life. The family of Camilla Randall hopes you will keep her memory in your heart. May she Rest in Peace.

PET OF THE WEEK

Celeste
Celeste is a happy girl who would do best with an adventurous family, and perhaps another dog to help burn off some puppy energy! She is working on leash manners, and had fun at a recent event spending time with kids. Celeste would do best with someone who can establish good boundaries, since she is still a puppy.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to fee and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 530-246-2727; Toll Free: 844-333-6766, or visit this internet website: calforeclosures.biz, using the file number assigned to this case: TS#24-3101, to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the street address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. Time: 10:00am Dept.: 2

Address of the Court: 450 H Street, Crescent City, CA 95531

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANTS: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call or (888) 902-3989 or visit these internet websites or www.nestortrustee.com, using the file number assigned to this case 2024-08820-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The Artist-in-Residence program offers artists the opportunity to immerse themselves in the inspiring landscapes of Redwood National & State Parks. Residencies last up to four weeks, and the program welcomes a variety of artistic disciplines, including writing, sculpture, photography, painting, dance, film, music, and other visual and performing arts.

Participants receive housing and a stipend of up to $5,000 to support their creative pursuits. The program fosters interaction between artists, park staff, and visitors, with a focus on translating the park's mission—preserving and enjoying the natural world—into meaningful art.
